March 2021

Greetings!

By the time you receive this issue of the Minuteman Magazine it will "pert" near, but not "plum" be springtime. I am certain that, for most of the country, you're as excited as I am to know that. With 3,000 low temperatures nationwide, spring certainly sounds good.

I'm sure there is no need for me to expound on all the news of the insanity spreading across our nation. All I will say is that it is literally becoming so insane that it's almost beyond comprehension. You will find a lot of the insane ideas in this month's magazine along with a dose of "sane" and intelligent rebuttal! Praise God that there are still people left who are able to see through satan's deception. Americans have sown corrupt seed! We are reaping what we have either sown or tolerated! (Gal. 6:7-8)

In closing, I would just implore you to stand for God's Word! Expose evil! Don't be ashamed of the gospel of Christ. Do not deny Him by keeping silent in the face of evil! Do not passively allow the cancer of sin to spread! If we are true believers, we cannot quietly tolerate evil! To do so is to deny Christ! That will damn your soul! (Mt. 10:32-39)

May our Heavenly Father guide and protect you in this war against evil.

In Christ's service,

Pastor Butch

NO FEAR

Luke 21:26 - Men's hearts failing them for fear, (terror, fright, exceedingly afraid) and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth. For the power of heaven shall be shaken.

Rev. 21:8 - But the fearful, (timid, faithless) and unbelievers, and the abominable, and murderers and whoremongers, and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death.

II Tim 1:7 - For God hath not given us the spirit of fear (timidity, cowardice, unmanliness); but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Obviously, we can understand just from the few scriptures quoted that the topic of fear is an important topic and issue. It is also obvious that all fear is not the same. Some fears are necessary for our survival. These are not the fears we are going to discuss. We are going to discuss the kind of fear that can cripple or destroy us physically, mentally and even spiritually.

There is a fear that is essential to save our souls and can lead us into a place of faith that will overcome the fears that torment and destroy us. Mt. 10:28, Acts 9:31, II Cor. 7:1, II Cor. 11:3 and Phil. 2:12 are just a few examples that show us the requirement of a soul-saving fear of God.

In I John 4:18 we are told that, "There is no fear in love; but perfect (mature, complete) love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love." The word torment in this passage means, "penal infliction, punishment" This type of fear can and will destroy an individual physically, mentally and even spiritually. It can cause their hearts to fail them spiritually and physically! Fear lowers your immune system, can cause gastrointestinal problems such as ulcers and irritable bowel syndrome. It can even decrease fertility! Mentally it can and will cause depression, anxiety, anguish, drug and alcohol abuse, suicidal thoughts and more! It can and will rob you of your peace and joy. It can and will affect your family and all those around you! If it is not dealt with and overcome, not through humanistic psychiatry or mind altering drugs, but rather through a life-changing commitment to Christ, it could lead to overpowering emotions like uncontrollable frustrations and anger that can turn and cause one to commit very serious crimes!

Now let's look at what it can do to an individual spiritually. Once fear gets a solid hold, it can and will eventually cause you to lose faith in everything and everyone. Including God. If you have been converted and are one of God's adopted children, be very aware of this truth! Because, if allowed, it can happen to you and we are told in Heb. 3:10-19-4:1. Because of fear and unbelief (loss of faith) His people could not enter into His rest (Kingdom).

This "fear thing" is extremely important!

Our enemy, the god of this world, is constantly and continuously "developing" fear into us on every hand. The most recent one has been the greatly-hyped-up fear of a "mild" flu like virus. He has and is lying to us and because of our ignorance of God's Word and His promises to us we have fallen for his treachery once again! The great deceiver Satan drives and controls us through fear whereas Christ leads us through faith and love!

The two greatest deceptions and motivations used to deceive, control and destroy people physically, mentally and spiritually are fear and false hope! Believe it or not fear is the second most powerful "tool" used to accomplish the goals of Satan and his minions. The greatest by far is false hope! Most of mankind will do anything they are told to do by "so-called" authorities if they are promised things will get better soon and they will all once again be safe! Everything will go back to being normal soon! Except it never does! The Covid-19 "plannedemic" is proof of this. Don't worry "sheeple"! Just wear your masks, stay at least six feet apart, close down your businesses, stay at home, don't gather with family and friends for any reason and let your loved ones die alone and isolated! Just trust and obey the authorities! And the generally dumbed down masses have done just that! As was said by a wise man, "Society's biggest failure is it allowed authority (authorities) to be its truth; and prevented truth from being it's authority."

You may be asking yourself, "So what can I do to overcome fear?" The answer is actually very simple if you are a truly and sincerely born again child of God! For those who don't even believe there is a sovereign God, much less in His Son, that died for you, I simply can't offer much help or hope, unless you are willing to accept the truth of the gospel. If not, just continue on your way to destruction. For those who do have saving faith in Jesus Christ, just honestly ask Him to increase your faith! (Luke 17:5) He will do that through your desire to hear the true word of God and through your careful study of His Word so that you won't be deceived by false teachers and their doctrines! (II Tim 2:15, Eph 4:14)

Fellow believers it is time to wake up to Satan's deceptions or we too will perish! (Rom. 13:11-14. II Thess. 2:1-12).

In Christ's Service,

Pastor Butch

Laboring in Vain

Psalms 127:1—Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that built it: except the LORD keep the city, (nation) the watchman waketh but in vain.

Let us no longer be deceived by others, or by ourselves! The Lord is not in America's house any longer. Therefore, without national repentance, America will never be restored to her former glory! America was once great only because she was once upon a time built on the Rock of Jesus Christ! Now we have trusted in our own devices, our own "morality" and our own wisdom. In other words, America's once solid foundation has been destroyed, and replaced with the shifting and completely unstable "sand" of humanism. Ps. 11:3, Mt. 7:26-27 Andrew Jackson once said, "The Bible is the Rock on which this Republic rests." America now fulfills Psalms 11:3 and 9:17

For much longer than I have been alive, over seven decades, the enemy of all creation has slowly eroded away the Godly, morality that once made us a prosperous and peaceful society. And what's even more destructive, he has deceived the vast majority of Americans into believing that man's ideals, politics or political parties could preserve our nation and maintain a society where as a whole, we could safely dwell in our homes with our families. The predominant choices we have had as long as I have been in this world were the Republican or Democratic parties. I was reared in an area where the people voted Democrat because they were for the "working class" while the Republicans were for the rich "upper class". Then, I figured out that the Democrats were undermining the morals of our nation and slowly eroding away our "rights" as Americans! And finally! I saw through the veil of lies and came to the "harsh" realization that both parties were the same! We just "thought" they were different! Because they said they were! If anyone who is reading this article is willing and capable of admitting to the truth of this fact, you are far ahead of the masses in our nation. If you are forty years old and upward, all you have to do is look back over each administration who has held office in your lifetime and try to tell me honestly which one actually reversed the destruction that has taken our country apart?

Whether we have a "conservative" or "liberal" administration in the White House, whether or not one controls all three houses of government or it's divided, nothing ever truly changes for the better! We simply are led further and further into debt, a police state, more ungodly and unconstitutional wars, greater taxation, more control over our lives in all areas and the masses of once fiercely independent and proud people have silently and timidly submitted ourselves to our "elected" tyrants! As a gentleman named Herbert Marcuse once said, "Free election of masters, does not abolish the masters or the slaves."

George Orwell in his book "Animal Farm" made this analogy that certainly fits our nation today and honestly has for well over a hundred years. "Twelve voices were shouting in anger, and they were all alike. No question, now, what happened to the faces of the pigs. The creatures outside looked from pig to man, and from man to pig and from to pig to man again; but already it was impossible to say which was which."

Will Americans ever learn from all the generations our nation has been slowly destroyed? (Hosea 4:6) Without one thread of doubt or hesitation, the answer is an unequivocal NO! As long as we fight over policies and political ideas we will never recover! Election fraud, for example is an immoral and unconstitutional” act! But it pales in comparison to 100,000,000 slaughtered unborn children! It pales in comparison to a society tolerating sodomy, lesbianism and pedophilia! We are straining at gnats and swallowing camels! (Mt. 23:24) Except we repent we shall perish! (Luke 13:2-3)

No matter how you try to dress up a pig, folks, it's still a pig!

Welcome to THE UPSIDE DOWN!

WhatsHerFace

Feb 14, 2021

Good evening, and welcome to the upside down. Where what you see, can never be, and what you know, just isn't so. Where bad is good and wrong is right. Where truth went down without a fight. Where you might just say, everyday is opposite day. Can I offer you a mask or an anal swab? Rape is the law, if its for a good cause. Oh no, it isn't mandatory, that would be cruel, but you have no choice, that's our only rule. Before you enter I must tell you about the world's deadliest disease. It can take you out with a single sneeze. It's a clever bugger too, it can't take out a violent mob it only thrives in those with jobs. but luckily, we have the only cure, it won't stop it from spreading but that's all we know for sure. So "What does it do?", you may ask. No one knows, so please be sure to double mask. "It's super safe" the doctor said. Even if you end up dead, because the antidote can't kill you since it's the leading cause of coincidence.

Now roll up your sleeve and let's go, I'll take you through the backwards show. Where doctors kill and science shills for our lord and saviour, a man named Bill. To your left you will find our grand display of courageous men with nothing to say. They don't provide, or lead, or slay. They smile, nod, and let you have your way. To your right you'll see our exhibition of empathy. Where the rich stay home, and through their phone, demand that old folks die alone. Follow along the yellow dotted line, to our memorial of dissent, our evil shrine. The thought criminals and sense seekers and those who disrupt, the ones who tried to turn us right side up. They did not shrink, to double think, so all of them died from "suicide".

Thank you very much for visiting THE UPSIDE DOWN! Now please return to the circus with the rest of the clowns.

German Neurologist Warns Against Wearing Facemasks: 'Oxygen Deprivation Causes Permanent Neurological Damage'

For your Health!

②

This is one of the most important posts I have ever made, so please read it.

I have written a transcript of some highlights from Dr. Margareta Griesz-Brisson's recent and extremely pressing video message, which was translated from German into English by Claudia Stauber.

Dr. Margareta Griesz-Brisson MD, PhD is a Consultant Neurologist and Neurophysiologist with a PhD in Pharmacology, with special interest in neurotoxicology, environmental medicine, neuroregeneration and neuroplasticity.

This is what she has to say about facemasks and their effects on our brains:

"The reinhalation of our exhaled air will without a doubt create oxygen deficiency and a flooding of carbon dioxide. We know that the human brain is very sensitive to oxygen deprivation.

There are nerve cells for example in the hippocampus that can't be longer than 3 minutes without oxygen – they cannot survive.

The acute warning symptoms are headaches, drowsiness, dizziness, issues in concentration, slowing down of reaction time – reactions of the cognitive system.

However, when you have chronic oxygen deprivation, all of those symptoms disappear, because you get used to it.

But your efficiency will remain impaired and the under-supply of oxygen in your brain continues to progress.

We know that neurodegenerative diseases take years to decades to develop. If today you forget your phone number, the breakdown in your brain would have already started 20 or 30 years ago.

While you're thinking that you have gotten used to wearing your mask and rebreathing your own exhaled air, the degenerative processes in your brain are getting amplified as your oxygen deprivation continues.

The second problem is that the nerve cells in your brain are unable to divide themselves normally.

So in case our governments will generously allow us to get rid of the masks and go back to breathing oxygen freely again in a few months, the lost nerve cells will no longer be regenerated. What is gone is gone.

I do not wear a mask, I need my brain to think. I want to have a clear head when I deal with my patients, and not be in a carbon dioxide-induced anaesthesia.

There is no unfounded medical exemption from face masks because oxygen deprivation is dangerous for every single brain.

It must be the free decision of every human being whether they want to wear a mask that is absolutely ineffective to protect themselves from a virus.

For children and adolescents, masks are an absolute no-no. Children and adolescents have an extremely active and adaptive immune system and they need a constant interaction with the microbiome of the Earth.

Their brain is also incredibly active, as it has so much to learn. The child's brain, or the youth's brain, is thirsting for oxygen.

The more metabolically active the organ is, the more oxygen it requires. In children and adolescents every organ is metabolically active.

To deprive a child's or an adolescent's brain from oxygen, or to restrict it in any way, is not only dangerous to their health, it is absolutely criminal.

Oxygen deficiency inhibits the development of the brain, and the damage that has taken place as a result CANNOT be reversed.

The child needs the brain to learn, and the brain needs oxygen to function. We don't need a clinical study for that. This is simple, indisputable physiology.

Consciously and purposely induced oxygen deficiency is an absolutely deliberate health hazard, and an absolute medical contraindication.

An absolute medical contraindication in medicine means that this drug, this therapy, this method or measure should not be used, and is not allowed to be used.

To coerce an entire population to use an absolute medical contraindication by force, there must be definite and serious reasons for this, and the reasons must be presented to competent interdisciplinary and independent bodies to be verified and authorized.

When, in ten years, dementia is going to increase exponentially, and the younger generations couldn't reach their god-given potential, it won't help to say "we didn't need the masks".

How can a veterinarian, a software distributor, a businessman, an electrical car manufacturer and a physicist decide on matters regarding the health of the entire population? Please, dear colleagues, we all have to wake up.

I know how damaging oxygen deprivation is for the brain, cardiologists know how damaging it is for the heart, pulmonologists know how damaging it is for the lungs. Oxygen deprivation damages every single organ.

Where are our health departments, our health insurance, our medical associations? It would have been their duty to be vehemently against the lockdown and to stop it and stop it from the very beginning.

Why do the medical boards issue punishments to doctors who give people exemptions? Does the person or the doctor seriously have to prove that oxygen deprivation harms people? What kind of medicine are our doctors and medical associations representing?

Who is responsible for this crime? The ones who want to enforce it? The ones who let it happen and play along, or the ones who don't prevent it?

It's not about masks, it's not about viruses, it's certainly not about your health. It is about much, much more. I am not participating. I am not afraid.

You can notice, they are already taking our air to breathe. The imperative of the hour is personal responsibility. We are responsible for what we think, not the media.

We are responsible for what we do, not our superiors. We are responsible for our health, not the World Health Organization. And we are responsible for what happens in our country, not the government.”

Doctors now warn about permanent damage and cardiovascular events following COVID-19 vaccination

Wednesday, February 03, 2021 by: Lance D Johnson

(Natural News) More doctors are speaking out about the harms of new COVID-19 vaccines.

Cardiothoracic surgeon, Dr. Hooman Noorchashm, M.D., Ph.D. is one of them. Dr. Noorchashm says that the covid-19 vaccines will almost certainly cause an antigen-specific immune response; however, if viral antigens are present in the tissues of recipients at the time of vaccination, the vaccine-augmented immune response will turn the immune system against those tissues, causing inflammation that can lead to blood clot formation. This destructive auto-immune effect could do significant damage to endothelial cells of elderly patients who already suffer from cardiovascular disease. There have already been numerous reports of unexplained cardiovascular fatalities following covid-19 vaccination across Norway, Germany, the UK, Gibraltar and the United States.

Vaccine causes recently-infected persons to experience autoimmune vascular damage

Dr. Noorchashm's findings are consistent with the research findings of Dr. J. Patrick Whelan, M.D., Ph.D., who shared similar concerns with the FDA in early December of 2020. Whelan warned that a recently-infected patient who is subject to covid-19 vaccination is likely to suffer from autoimmune attacks along the ACE-2 receptors present in the heart, and in the microvasculature of the brain, liver and kidney. The risk is doubled because two shots are required.

It is a well documented fact that SARS-CoV-2, the Wuhan coronavirus, readily targets humans through the vascular endothelium. The virus is known to enter into endothelial cells through the ACE-2 receptor on the endothelium. Because of this unique gain-of-function, one of the medical emergencies that may occur in covid-19 patients is thromboembolic complications (formation of a blood clot inside a blood vessel). If viral antigens are present in the endothelial lining of blood vessels, then the vaccine will cause an antigen-specific immune response that attacks those precious tissues, potentially causing cardiovascular events. The research warns that the vaccine is "almost certain to do damage to the vascular endothelium," especially in the elderly. This vaccine-induced endothelial inflammation is "certain to cause blood clot formation with the potential for major thromboembolic complications in a subset of such patients," he warns.

Dr. Noorchashm concludes, "Therefore, it is my respectful request that FDA, in collaboration with Pfizer and Moderna, immediately and at the very minimum, institute clear recommendations to clinicians that they delay immunization in any recently convalescent patients, as well as any known symptomatic or asymptomatic carriers — and to actively screen as many patients with high cardiovascular risk as is reasonably possible, in order to detect the presence of SARS-CoV-2, prior to vaccinating them.”

FDA and CDC must act now to prevent cardiac events caused by covid-19 vaccines

An advocate for ethics, patient safety, and women’s health, Dr. Noorchashm has written his concerns out to the FDA and the drug companies, Pfizer and Moderna. He is calling for better screening of recently-infected individuals who are lining up to be vaccine recipients, to ultimately mitigate vaccine damage. Elderly populations with a history of cardiovascular issues are at greatest risk to this potentially deadly vaccine injury. The doctor is calling for more comprehensive informed consent about this serious health effect. The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) have an ethical responsibility to convene emergency meetings and establish new guidelines for vaccine administration, before more people are harmed.

Lyn Redwood, RN, MSN, director and president emerita of Children’s Health Defense, wrote: “Ignoring these valid and scientifically supported warnings from leading physicians may result in hundreds of millions of people suffering potentially deadly injuries or permanent damage following vaccination.” The public is losing confidence in vaccination because the FDA and CDC continue to ignore the role that vaccines play in the pathology of multiple disease processes.

Study: Long-Term Mask Use May Contribute to Advanced Stage Lung Cancer

Humans are Free – by Phillip Schneider

A recent study in the journal Cancer Discovery found that inhalation of harmful microbes can contribute to advanced stage lung cancer in adults. Long-term use of face masks may help breed these dangerous pathogens.

Microbiologists agree that frequent mask wearing creates a moist environment in which microbes are allowed to grow and proliferate before entering the lungs. Those foreign microbes then travel down the trachea and into two tubes called the bronchi until they reach small air sacs covered in blood vessels called alveoli.

"The lungs were long thought to be sterile, but we now know that oral commensals—microbes normally found in the mouth—frequently enter the lungs due to unconscious aspirations." – Leopoldo Segal, Study Author and Director of the Lung Microbiome Program and Associate Professor of Medicine at New York University Grossman School of Medicine

According to the study, after invading the lungs these microbes cause an inflammatory response in proteins known as cytokine IL-17.

"Given the known impact of IL-17 and inflammation on lung cancer, we were interested in determining if the enrichment of oral commensals in the lungs could drive an IL-17-type inflammation and influence lung cancer progression and prognosis," said Segal.

While analyzing lung microbes of 83 untreated adults with lung cancer, the research team discovered that colonies of Veillonella, Prevotella, and Streptococcus bacteria, which may be cultivated through prolonged mask wearing, are all found in larger quantities in patients with advanced stage lung cancer than in earlier stages.

The presence of these bacterial cultures is also associated with a lower chance of survival and increased tumor growth regardless of the stage.

Additionally, research into the cultivation of Veillonella bacteria in the lungs of mice found that the presence of such bacteria leads to the emergence of immune suppressing cells as well as inflammatory ones such as cytokine IL-17.

"Given the results of our study, it is possible that changes to the lung microbiome could be used as a biomarker to predict prognosis or to stratify patients for treatment." – Leopoldo Segal

German Neurologist Warns Against Wearing Facemasks: 'Oxygen Deprivation Causes Permanent Neurological Damage'

As more evidence emerges pertaining to the long-term effects of mask mandates and lock downs, doctors and scientists are beginning to reconsider whether these authoritarian measures really are doing more harm than good.

One Canadian public health expert named Dr. Aji Joffe found in a related study that lock downs cause "at least ten times" more damage than benefit.

In a recent working paper by researchers at Harvard, Duke, and John Hopkins Universities, academics concluded that "for the overall population, the increase in the death rate following the COVID-19 pandemic implies a staggering 0.89 and 1.37 million excess deaths over the next 15 and 20 years, respectively."

Since forced mask wearing began, dermatologists have coined the term 'maskne' to describe an onset of pimples near the mouth caused by masks clogging up pores with oil and bacteria. This can be caused by either disposable or cloth masks.

Dentists have also been warning about a phenomenon known as 'mask mouth' in which patients are arriving back to the dental office with an increase in gingivitis and tooth decay as high as 50% in a period of just a few months since mask mandates began.

The Salk Polio Vaccine: 'Greatest Public Health Experiment in History'

HealthDay – by Dennis Thompson

Part two of a two-part series

TUESDAY, Dec. 2, 2014 (HealthDay News) — A nationwide trial of an experimental vaccine using school children as virtual guinea pigs would be unthinkable in the United States today.

But that's exactly what happened in 1954 when frantic American parents — looking for anything that could beat back the horror of polio — offered up more than 1.8 million children to serve as test subjects. They included 600,000 kids who would be injected with either a new polio vaccine or a placebo.

Equally remarkable, the Salk polio vaccine trial stands as the largest peacetime mobilization of volunteers in American history, requiring the efforts of 325,000 doctors, nurses, educators and private citizens — with no money from federal grants or pharmaceutical companies. The results were tracked by volunteers using pencils and paper.

And it lasted just one year, with officials hopeful at the outset that they would be able to begin giving the vaccine to children within weeks of the final results.

"I can't imagine what the disease would be today that could get that many parents to sign up their children for an experimental vaccine trial," said Daniel Wilson, a history professor at Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pa., who has written three books on the history of polio in the United States and is himself a polio survivor. "I think it's a measure of how much people feared polio that mothers and fathers were willing to accept the word of researchers that the vaccine was safe."

Financing for the trial came from donations made to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis — the forerunner of the March of Dimes. The foundation was created in 1938 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt and his law partner, Basil O'Connor.

Roosevelt had a profoundly personal interest in defeating polio — the disease left him crippled in 1921 at age 39, and he spent his entire presidency in leg braces, confined to a wheelchair, unable to even get up by himself.

The National Foundation spent $7.5 million in donations — $66.3 million in today's dollars — to initiate, organize and run the vaccine trial, with little participation from the federal government.

"That's what makes it the greatest public health experiment in history," said David Oshinsky, who wrote the Pulitzer Prize-winning book Polio: An American Story. "It's not just the success of the trials. It's the incredible organization involved, with tens of thousands of mothers and families coming together to save their children. And it was all done privately. That's what makes this so incredible."

There was enormous pressure to get the field trial under way in advance of the 1954 polio season. Polio epidemics took place during the summer, with the number of cases rising through June and July and peaking in August.

"We realized we wanted to get it accomplished in 1954, early enough that it could possibly have an impact on that year's polio season," said David Rose, archivist for the March of Dimes.

A grass-roots movement without precedent

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis already had a nationwide network of health officials, medical professionals, elementary educators and volunteers in place to help respond to polio outbreaks. These were the same people who would form the workforce needed for the clinical trial. In addition, the foundation's annual "Mother's March" raised millions in dimes and dollars each year, which was used for polio research and aid to communities enduring polio epidemics.

Some of that money had funded Dr. Jonas Salk's creation in 1952 of an experimental "killed-virus" polio vaccine, and his subsequent experiments that proved the vaccine's safety in humans.

Basil O'Connor and the National Foundation's scientific advisors had taken a keen interest in Salk's vaccine, especially when his early experiments suggested that it increased the level of polio antibodies in a person's blood without any ill effects. So plans were made for the national trial.

O'Connor announced in November 1953 that the field trial would begin the following spring, and would be based on an "observed-control" design. That meant one group of children would receive the vaccine, and another group of kids in the same age range would be observed but not injected with either the vaccine or a placebo.

There were, of course, major concerns. Some questioned whether the National Foundation could perform an impartial evaluation of a vaccine that it had had a hand in creating. They also expressed doubts about the "observed control" design of the trial.

The problem with the "observed-control" approach was that middle- and upper-class neighborhoods were more likely to suffer a polio outbreak than poorer areas. The reason: better sanitation, which meant less exposure to germs and resulting immunity, said Dr. Peter Salk, Jonas Salk's son and president of the Jonas Salk Legacy Foundation.

"The concern was that the children who would end up receiving the real vaccine would be from a different social cut from those who would serve as observed controls," Salk said. "It was the wealthier neighborhoods that had more polio. If you took kids from the wealthier areas, they would have a higher risk of polio, and those kids would be expected to have a higher incidence than controls."

To counter potential charges of scientific bias, the National Foundation turned the polio vaccine field trial over to Jonas Salk's mentor, Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., a virologist at the University of Michigan who had worked with Salk years before on an influenza vaccine.

Francis established the Poliomyelitis Vaccine Evaluation Center at the University of Michigan, which would guide the trial and independently analyze the results.

Soon after taking charge, Francis announced that the trial would be conducted using two separate "arms." One arm would follow the "observed-control" design originally proposed by the National Foundation. The second arm would utilize a "placebo-control" design, with half the children getting the vaccine and the other half a placebo.

Salk himself, who had only a supporting role in the massive undertaking, initially resisted the idea of a "placebo-control" trial, arguing that doctors shouldn't be giving kids something that deliberately would not protect them against polio, his son recalled.

"Very fortunately, my father ended up yielding to the forces at work, which was that the only way it would be possible to convince anyone and to understand the effectiveness of the vaccine would be to use a placebo-controlled design," said Peter Salk.

Legions of proud 'Polio Pioneers'

Between April 26 and July 10, 1954, volunteers distributed Salk's series of three polio shots. In all, more than 443,000 children received at least one polio inoculation, while more than 210,000 received a placebo, according to the March of Dimes.

"There were three shots and it was a double-blind study," Oshinsky said. "Neither the child nor the caregiver knew who was receiving the vaccine or a placebo, so the paperwork was enormous."

All the kids in the trials became known as the "Polio Pioneers," and each received what would become a much-treasured Polio Pioneer metal pin and certificate of membership signed by O'Connor himself.

Bonnie Yarry of Maitland, Fla., still had her Polio Pioneer pin and certificate in 2005 when she wrote a personal remembrance for the non-profit group Post-Polio Health International.

Calling herself a "tiny peg in Dr. Salk's success story," Yarry recalled how her New York City second grade class at monthly intervals "traipsed down to P.S. 148's makeshift infirmary, a kindergarten classroom filled with New York Health Department doctors and nurses prepared to inoculate us."

"With butterflies in my stomach, I stuck out my arm, never looked at the needle, waited for the prick and then the pain," Yarry wrote. "I heard others cry, but I didn't."

The Salk vaccine trial also served as one of the earliest and largest examples of informed consent, the process by which researchers get permission to experiment on human subjects, Oshinsky said.

"Parents actually signed a piece of paper saying, 'I give my consent to have my child participate in this experiment,' " he said.

Researchers spent the rest of 1954 following the health of all the children, and taking blood samples from 40,000 kids in the study to examine their antibody response.

Through three months of winter and the early spring of 1955, the researchers analyzed and evaluated the data gathered on inoculation, blood samples, and resulting cases of polio. Much of the work was done by hand, although some computations were performed using punch cards that were fed into a primitive computer the size of a room, Oshinsky said.

People were on pins and needles waiting for the results of the trial. Even Salk himself knew nothing about how the analysis was proceeding, his son said.

'An instant hero'

Then, just one year after the trial started, the National Foundation announced the results: The Salk vaccine proved 80 to 90 percent effective in preventing polio.

"The vaccine works. It is safe, effective and potent," stated the press release issued by the National Foundation on Tuesday, April 12, 1955. It concluded, "There can be no doubt now that children can be inoculated successfully against polio."

The New York Times blared the news with a banner headline: "SALK POLIO VACCINE PROVES SUCCESS; MILLIONS WILL BE IMMUNIZED SOON; CITY SCHOOLS BEGIN SHOTS APRIL 25."

"Salk became sort of an instant hero," said Muhlenberg College's Wilson. "He appeared on the cover of Time magazine. He really was celebrated. [President Dwight] Eisenhower entertained him at the White House."

For some children, however, the vaccine came too late. Wilson contracted polio at age 5 in September 1955, months after the vaccine's success had been announced.

"The vaccine was out and available in the fall of 1955, but it was in short supply at that time in rural Wisconsin," said Wilson, who lived in Wausau back then. "I was a year short of going to school, and so I didn't get the vaccine." Now 64, he has had lifelong health problems due to his childhood polio.

Once Salk's vaccine became widely available, Oshinsky said, it saved the lives of tens of thousands of children in the United States and Canada.

And by 1961, the rate of polio had dropped by 96 percent in the United States, thanks to the Salk vaccine, according to the March of Dimes.

Salk's legacy, however, extends far beyond his vaccine. Oshinsky contends that Salk's true contribution to science was his demonstration that a killed virus vaccine could be as effective as using a live virus. The flu shot people receive every year is a killed virus vaccine, as are modern vaccines that protect against typhoid, cholera and whooping cough, he said.

"Jonas Salk showed that a killed virus vaccine would work and would be damned effective in fighting disease," Oshinsky said. "This was something that virologists of the day pooh-poohed. And Salk proved them wrong."

But Salk's vaccine, still available and the primary polio vaccine for the United States, isn't as widely used across the globe today as the live virus polio vaccine developed by his rival, Dr. Albert Sabin.

Sabin, a Polish medical researcher who became a naturalized U.S. citizen in 1930, tested the effectiveness of his oral vaccine on at least 100 million people in the USSR and other countries between 1955 and 1961.

His vaccine proved even better at preventing polio, and much easier to deliver.

"You can give it in drops, you can put the drops on sugar cubes," Wilson said. "You don't need to have an expert doctor or nurse to give the vaccine. Sabin's vaccine was the vaccine to bring polio to the edge of eradication."

However, Sabin's vaccine doesn't completely eradicate polio, because a minute number of children given the live virus vaccine will actually contract polio, Oshinsky said.

"When you get the numbers way, way down, you have to come in with the Salk vaccine to finish it off," Oshinsky noted.

He added, "I don't think the irony would be lost on Sabin or Salk, two scientific rivals who truly did not like each other. We need both their vaccines to end polio forever. We can't do it with just one of them."

Doctors Link Life-Threatening Blood Disorder to Pfizer & Moderna Vaccines

Doctors Link Pfizer, Moderna Vaccines to Life-Threatening Blood Disorder

A second New York Times article quotes doctors who say the mRNA technology used in COVID vaccines may cause immune thrombocytopenia, a blood disorder that last month led to the death of a Florida doctor after his first dose of the Pfizer vaccine.

By: Children's Health Defense Team

For the second time in under a month, The New York Times has published an article about people who developed a rare autoimmune disease after receiving COVID vaccines.

Monday's article featured two women, both of whom were described as healthy before they received the Moderna vaccine. The women, ages 72 and 48, are now being treated for immune thrombocytopenia \(ITP\), a condition that develops when the immune system attacks platelets (blood component essential for clotting) or the cells that create them, according to the Times.

On Jan. 13, the Times reported on the death of Dr. Gregory Michael, a Florida doctor who died 15 days after getting the Pfizer vaccine. Michael, who was 56 and described as "perfectly healthy" by his wife, developed ITP three days after being vaccinated. He died of a brain hemorrhage on Jan. 3. As The Defender reported on Jan. 13, Dr. Jerry L. Spivak, an expert on blood disorders at Johns Hopkins University, said it was a "medical certainty" the Pfizer vaccine led to Michael's death.

Spivak, who was interviewed for Monday's article in the Times, reiterated the link between the vaccine and ITP. Another doctor, Dr. James Bussel, a hematologist and professor emeritus at Weill Cornell Medicine who has written more than 300 scientific articles on the platelet disorder, also said he thinks there is a "possible" association between the vaccines and ITP.

Bussel told the Times:

"I'm assuming there's something that made the people who developed thrombocytopenia susceptible, given what a tiny percentage of recipients they are. Having it happen after a vaccine is well-known and has been seen with many other vaccines. Why it happens, we don't know."

Bussel and a colleague, Dr. Eun-Ju Lee, have identified 15 cases of ITP in COVID vaccine recipients by searching the government's database — the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) — or by consulting with other physicians treating patients, and have submitted an article about their findings to a medical journal, according to the Times.

In a statement provided to the Times, Pfizer said it was aware of ITP cases in vaccine recipients and that the company is "collecting relevant information" to share with the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

The vaccine maker added, however that "at this time, we have not been able to establish a causal association with our vaccine." Moderna also provided a statement, but didn't address cases of ITP, only saying that it "continuously monitors the safety of the Moderna Covid-19 vaccine using all sources of data" and routinely shares safety information with regulators.

Directly following Michael's death, Pfizer said there was "no indication — either from large clinical trials or among people who have received the vaccine since the government authorized its use last month — that it could be connected to thrombocytopenia."

But, as Lyn Redwood, RN, MSN, president emerita and director of Children's Health Defense said at the time, Pfizer's statement didn't square with the facts — because ITP is a well-known adverse event associated with vaccinations.

The vaccine most often implicated in ITP is the measles-mumps-rubella (MMR) vaccine, where the disease occurs in approximately 1 in every 25,000 to 40,000 doses of the vaccine, Redwood said.

ITP has also been associated with hepatitis A and B virus \(HBV\), human papilloma virus \(HPV\), varicella-zoster, diphtheria-tetanus-acellular pertussis \(DTap\), polio and pneumococcus vaccines.

According to the Times, ITP is "generally treatable" but can persist for months or become chronic and last for years. The American Hematology Society advises patients who already have ITP go ahead and get vaccinated, "but after consulting with their hematologists."

Know what you are doing to yourself and your children!

"I gathered all vaccine ingredients into a list and contacted Poison Control. After intros and such, and asking to speak with someone tenured and knowledgeable, this is the gist of that conversation.

Me: My question to you is how are these ingredients categorized? As benign or poison? (I ran a few ingredients, formaldehyde, Tween 80, mercury, aluminum, phenoxyethanol, potassium phosphate, sodium phosphate, sorbitol, etc.)

He: Well, that's quite a list... But I'd have to easily say that they're all toxic to humans... Used in fertilizers... Pesticides... To stop the heart... To preserve a dead body... They're registered with us in different categories, but pretty much poisons. Why?

Me: If I were deliberately to feed or inject my child with these ingredients often, as a schedule, obviously I'd put my daughter in harm's way... But what would legally happen to me?

He: Odd question... But you'd likely be charged with criminal negligence... perhaps with intent to kill... and of course child abuse... Your child would be taken away from you... Do you know of someone's who's doing this to their child? This is criminal...

Me: An industry... These are the ingredients used in vaccines... With binding agents to make sure the body won't flush these out... To keep the antibody levels up indefinitely...

He: WHAT?!

Your conclusion?

The man was beside himself. He asked if I would email him all this information. He wanted to share it with his adult kids who are parents. He was horrified and felt awful he didn't know... his kids are vaccinated and they have health issues..."

✓ INGREDIENTS TO VACCINES - You CANNOT make an educated decision without being educated.

Here are just SOME vaccine ingredients.
These are being INJECTED into your kids;

- Formaldehyde/Formalin - Highly toxic systematic poison and carcinogen.
- Betapropiolactone - Toxic chemical and carcinogen. May cause death/permanent injury after very short exposure to small quantities. Corrosive chemical.
- Hexadecyltrimethylammonium bromide - May cause damage to the liver, cardiovascular system, and central nervous system. May cause reproductive effects and birth defects.
- Aluminum hydroxide, aluminum phosphate, and aluminum salts - Neurotoxin. Carries risk for long term brain inflammation/swelling, neurological disorders, autoimmune disease, Alzheimer's, dementia, and autism. It penetrates the brain where it persists indefinitely.
- Thimerosal (mercury) - Neurotoxin. Induces cellular damage, reduces oxidation-reduction activity, cellular degeneration, and cell death. Linked to neurological disorders, Alzheimer's, dementia, and autism.

- Polysorbate 80 & 20 - Trespasses the Blood-Brain Barrier and carries with it aluminum, thimerosal, and viruses; allowing it to enter the brain.
- Glutaraldehyde - Toxic chemical used as a disinfectant for heat sensitive medical equipment.
- Fetal Bovine Serum - Harvested from bovine (cow) fetuses taken from pregnant cows before slaughter.
- Human Diploid Fibroblast Cells - aborted fetal cells. Foreign DNA has the ability to interact with our own.
- African Green Monkey Kidney Cells - Can carry the SV-40 cancer-causing virus that has already tainted about 30 million Americans.
- Acetone - Can cause kidney, liver, and nerve damage.
- E.Coli - Yes, you read that right.
- DNA from porcine (pig) Circovirus type-1
- Human embryonic lung cell cultures (from aborted fetuses)

* You can view all of these ingredients on the CDC's website. I encourage everyone to do their own research. Look up the MSDS on these chemicals. Read the thousands of peer reviewed studies that have evaluated the biological consequences these chemicals can have on the body, especially when being injected.

Vaccine Excipient Summary

Excipients Included in U.S. Vaccines, by Vaccine

In addition to weakened or killed disease antigens (viruses or bacteria), vaccines contain very small amounts of other ingredients – excipients.

Some excipients are added to a vaccine for a specific purpose. These include:

Preservatives, to prevent contamination. For example, thimerosal.

Adjuvants, to help stimulate a stronger immune response. For example, aluminum salts.

Stabilizers, to keep the vaccine potent during transportation and storage. For example, sugars or gelatin.

Others are residual trace amounts of materials that were used during the manufacturing process and removed. These can include:

Cell culture materials, used to grow the vaccine antigens. For example, egg protein, various culture media.

Inactivating ingredients, used to kill viruses or inactivate toxins. For example, formaldehyde.

Antibiotics, used to prevent contamination by bacteria. For example, neomycin.

The following table lists substances, other than active ingredients (i.e., antigens), shown in the manufacturers' package insert (PI) as being contained in the final formulation of each vaccine. Note: Substances used in the manufacture of a vaccine but not listed as contained in the final product (e.g., culture media) can be found in each PI, but are not shown on this table. Each PI, which can be found on the FDA's website (see below) contains a description of that vaccine's manufacturing process, including the amount and purpose of each substance. In most PIs, this information is found in Section 11: "Description."

All information was extracted from manufacturers' package inserts.

The date shown in the Date column of the table is the edition date of the PI in use in February 2020.

If a date contains an asterisk (*), the PI was not dated and this is the date the PI was reviewed for this table.

If in doubt about whether a PI has been updated since this table was prepared, check the FDA's website at:

All influenza vaccine in this table are 2019-20 northern hemisphere formulation.

Vaccine	Date	Contains
Adenovirus	10/2019	monosodium glutamate, sucrose, D-mannose, D-fructose, dextrose, human serum albumin, potassium phosphate, pladone C, anhydrous lactose, microcrystalline cellulose, polacrilin potassium, magnesium stearate, cellulose acetate phthalate, alcohol, acetone, castor oil, FD&C Yellow #6 aluminum lake dye
Anthrax (Biothrax)	11/2015	aluminum hydroxide, sodium chloride, benzethonium chloride, formaldehyde
BCG (Tice)	2/2009	glycerin, asparagine, citric acid, potassium phosphate, magnesium sulfate, iron ammonium citrate, lactose
Cholera (Vaxchora)	6/2016	ascorbic acid, hydrolyzed casein, sodium chloride, sucrose, dried lactose, sodium bicarbonate, sodium carbonate
Dengue (Dengvaxia)	6/2019	sodium chloride, essential amino acids (including L-phenylalanine), non-essential amino acids, L-arginine hydrochloride, sucrose, D-trehalose dihydrate, D-sorbitol, trometamol, urea
DT (Sanofi)	6/2018	aluminum phosphate, isotonic sodium chloride, formaldehyde
DTaP (Daptacel)	12/2018	aluminum phosphate, formaldehyde, glutaraldehyde, 2-phenoxyethanol
DTaP (Infanrix)	12/2018	formaldehyde, aluminum hydroxide, sodium chloride, polysorbate 80 (Tween 80)
DTaP-IPV (Kinrix)	12/2018	Formaldehyde, aluminum hydroxide, sodium chloride, polysorbate 80 (Tween 80), neomycin sulfate, polymyxin B
DTaP-IPV (Quadracel)	1/2019	formaldehyde, aluminum phosphate, 2-phenoxyethanol, polysorbate 80, glutaraldehyde, neomycin, polymyxin B sulfate, bovine serum albumin
DTaP-HepB-IPV (Pediarix)	2/2020*	formaldehyde, aluminum hydroxide, aluminum phosphate, sodium chloride, polysorbate 80 (Tween 80), neomycin sulfate, polymyxin B, yeast protein
DTaP-IPV/Hib (Pentacel)	1/2019	aluminum phosphate, polysorbate 80, sucrose, formaldehyde, glutaraldehyde, bovine serum albumin, 2-phenoxyethanol, neomycin, polymyxin B sulfate
DTaP-IPV-Hib-HepB (Vaxelis)	12/2018	polysorbate 80, formaldehyde, glutaraldehyde, bovine serum albumin, neomycin, streptomycin sulfate, polymyxin B sulfate, ammonium thiocyanate, yeast protein, aluminum
Ebola Zaire (ERVEBO)	2/2020*	Tromethamine rice-derived recombinant human serum albumin, host cell DNA benzonase, rice protein
Hib (ActHIB)	5/2019	sodium chloride, formaldehyde, sucrose
Hib (Hiberix)	4/2018	formaldehyde, sodium chloride, lactose

Vaccine	Date	Contains
Hib (PedvaxHIB)	10/2018	amorphous aluminum hydroxyphosphate sulfate, sodium chloride
Hep A (Havrix)	2/2020*	MRC-5 cellular proteins, formalin, aluminum hydroxide, amino acid supplement, phosphate-buffered saline solution, polysorbate 20, neomycin sulfate, aminoglycoside antibiotic
Hep A (Vaqta)	12/2018	amorphous aluminum hydroxyphosphate sulfate, non-viral protein, DNA, bovine albumin, formaldehyde, neomycin, sodium borate, sodium chloride, other process chemical residuals
Hep B (Engerix-B)	2/2020*	aluminum hydroxide, yeast protein, sodium chloride, disodium phosphate dihydrate, sodium dihydrogen phosphate dihydrate
Hep B (Recombivax)	12/2018	formaldehyde, potassium aluminum sulfate, amorphous aluminum hydroxyphosphate sulfate, yeast protein
Hep B (Heplisav-B)	2017	yeast protein, yeast DNA, deoxycholate, phosphorothioate linked oligodeoxynucleotide, sodium phosphate, dibasic dodecahydrate, sodium chloride, monobasic dehydrate, polysorbate 80
Hep A/Hep B (Twinrix)	2/2020*	MRC-5 cellular proteins, formalin, aluminum phosphate, aluminum hydroxide, amino acids, sodium chloride, phosphate buffer, polysorbate 20, neomycin sulfate, yeast protein, water
Human Papillomavirus (HPV) (Gardasil 9)	10/2018	amorphous aluminum hydroxyphosphate sulfate, sodium chloride, L-histidine, polysorbate 80, sodium borate, yeast protein
Influenza (Afluria) Quadrivalent	12/2019	sodium chloride, monobasic sodium phosphate, dibasic sodium phosphate, monobasic potassium phosphate, potassium chloride, calcium chloride, sodium taurodeoxycholate, ovalbumin, sucrose, neomycin sulfate, polymyxin B, beta-propiolactone, hydrocortisone thimerosal (multi-dose vials)
Influenza (Fluad)	4/2019	squalene, polysorbate 80, sorbitan trioleate, sodium citrate dehydrate, citric acid monohydrate, neomycin, kanamycin, barium, hydrocortisone, egg proteins, cetyltrimethylammonium bromide (CTAB), formaldehyde
Influenza (Fluarix) Quadrivalent	©2019	octoxynol-10 (TRITON X-100), $\alpha$ -tocopheryl hydrogen succinate, polysorbate 80 (Tween 80), hydrocortisone, gentamicin sulfate, ovalbumin, formaldehyde, sodium deoxycholate, sodium phosphate-buffered isotonic sodium chloride
Influenza (Flublok) Quadrivalent	4/2019	sodium chloride, monobasic sodium phosphate, dibasic sodium phosphate, polysorbate 20 (Tween 20), baculovirus and Spodoptera frugiperda cell proteins, baculovirus and cellular DNA, Triton X-100
Influenza (Flucelvax) Quadrivalent	8/2019	Madin Darby Canine Kidney (MDCK) cell protein, phosphate buffered saline, protein other than HA, MDCK cell DNA, polysorbate 80, cetyltrimethylammonium bromide, and $\beta$ -propiolactone, Thimerosal (multi-dose vials)
Influenza (Flulaval) Quadrivalent	2/2020*	ovalbumin, formaldehyde, sodium deoxycholate, $\alpha$ -tocopheryl hydrogen succinate, polysorbate 80, thimerosal (multi-dose vials), phosphate-buffered saline solution
Influenza (Fluzone) Quadrivalent	2019	formaldehyde, egg protein, octylphenol ethoxylate (Triton X-100), sodium phosphate-buffered isotonic sodium chloride solution, thimerosal (multi-dose vials)
Influenza (Fluzone) High Dose	1/2019	egg protein, octylphenol ethoxylate (Triton X-100), sodium phosphate-buffered isotonic sodium chloride solution, formaldehyde
Influenza (FluMist) Quadrivalent	8/2019	monosodium glutamate, hydrolyzed porcine gelatin, arginine, sucrose, dibasic potassium phosphate, monobasic potassium phosphate, ovalbumin, gentamicin sulfate, ethylenediaminetetraacetic acid (EDTA)
Japanese Encephalitis (Ixiaro)	9/2018	aluminum hydroxide, protamine sulfate, formaldehyde, bovine serum albumin, Vero cell DNA, sodium metabisulphite, Vero cell protein
Meningococcal (MenACWY-Menactra)	4/26/18	sodium phosphate-buffered isotonic sodium chloride solution, formaldehyde, diphtheria toxoid
Meningococcal (MenACWY-Menveo)	2/2020*	formaldehyde, CRM <sub>197</sub> protein
Meningococcal (MenB – Bexsero)	2/2020*	aluminum hydroxide, sodium chloride, histidine, sucrose, kanamycin
Meningococcal (MenB – Trumenba)	2018	polysorbate 80, aluminum phosphate, histidine buffered saline

Vaccine	Date	Contains
MMR (MMR-II)	2/2020*	vitamins, amino acids, fetal bovine serum, sucrose, glutamate, recombinant human albumin, neomycin, sorbitol, hydrolyzed gelatin, sodium phosphate, sodium chloride, WI-38 human diploid lung fibroblasts
MMRV (ProQuad) (Frozen: Recombinant Albumin)	2/2020*	MRC-5 cells including DNA and protein, sucrose, hydrolyzed gelatin, sodium chloride, sorbitol, monosodium L-glutamate, sodium phosphate dibasic, recombinant human albumin, sodium bicarbonate, potassium phosphate monobasic, potassium chloride; potassium phosphate dibasic, neomycin, bovine calf serum
MMRV (ProQuad) (Frozen: Human Serum Albumin)	2/2020*	MRC-5 cells including DNA and protein, sucrose, hydrolyzed gelatin, sodium chloride, sorbitol, monosodium L-glutamate, sodium phosphate dibasic, human albumin, sodium bicarbonate, potassium phosphate monobasic, potassium chloride; potassium phosphate dibasic, neomycin, bovine calf serum
MMRV (ProQuad) (Refrigerator Stable)	10/2018	MRC-5 cells including DNA and protein, sucrose, hydrolyzed gelatin, urea, sodium chloride, sorbitol, monosodium L-glutamate, sodium phosphate, recombinant human albumin, sodium bicarbonate, potassium phosphate, potassium chloride, neomycin, bovine serum albumin
Pneumococcal (PCV13 – Prevnar 13)	8/2017	CRM <sub>197</sub> carrier protein, polysorbate 80, succinate buffer, aluminum phosphate
Pneumococcal (PPSV-23 – Pneumovax)	2/2020*	isotonic saline solution, phenol
Polio (IPV – Ipol)	2/2020*	calf bovine serum albumin, 2-phenoxyethanol, formaldehyde, neomycin, streptomycin, polymyxin B, M-199 medium
Rabies (Imovax)	10/2019	human albumin, neomycin sulfate, phenol red, beta-propiolactone
Rabies (RabAvert)	©2018	chicken protein, polygeline (processed bovine gelatin), human serum albumin, potassium glutamate, sodium EDTA, ovalbumin, neomycin, chlortetracycline, amphotericin B
Rotavirus (RotaTeq)	2/2017	sucrose, sodium citrate, sodium phosphate monobasic monohydrate, sodium hydroxide, polysorbate 80, cell culture media, fetal bovine serum [DNA from porcine circoviruses (PCV) 1 and 2 has been detected in RotaTeq. PCV-1 and PCV-2 are not known to cause disease in humans.]
Rotavirus (Rotarix)	2/2020*	dextran, Dulbecco's Modified Eagle Medium (sodium chloride, potassium chloride, magnesium sulfate, ferric (III) nitrate, sodium phosphate, sodium pyruvate, D-glucose, concentrated vitamin solution, L-cystine, L-tyrosine, amino acids, L-glutamine, calcium chloride, sodium hydrogenocarbonate, and phenol red), sorbitol, sucrose, calcium carbonate, sterile water, xanthan [Porcine circovirus type 1 (PCV-1) is present in Rotarix. PCV-1 is not known to cause disease in humans.]
Smallpox (Vaccinia) (ACAM2000)	3/2018	HEPES, 2% human serum albumin, 0.5 - 0.7% sodium chloride USP, 5% Mannitol USP, neomycin, polymyxin B, 50% Glycerin USP, 0.25% phenol USP
Td (Tenivac)	11/2019	aluminum phosphate, formaldehyde, sodium chloride, water
Td (TDVAX)	9/2018	aluminum phosphate, formaldehyde, thimerosal
Tdap (Adacel)	1/2019	aluminum phosphate, formaldehyde, 2-phenoxyethanol, glutaraldehyde, water
Tdap (Boostrix)	2/2020*	formaldehyde, aluminum hydroxide, sodium chloride, polysorbate 80
Typhoid (Typhim Vi)	3/2014	formaldehyde, phenol, polydimethylsiloxane, disodium phosphate, monosodium phosphate, sodium chloride, sterile water
Typhoid (Vivotif Ty21a)	9/2013	sucrose, ascorbic acid, amino acids, lactose, magnesium stearate, gelatin
Varicella (Varivax) Frozen	2/2020*	MRC-5 human diploid cells, including DNA & protein, sucrose, hydrolyzed gelatin, sodium chloride, monosodium L-glutamate, sodium phosphate dibasic, sodium phosphate monobasic, potassium phosphate monobasic, potassium chloride, EDTA, neomycin, fetal bovine serum
Varicella (Varivax) Refrigerator Stable	10/2018	MRC-5 human diploid cells, including DNA & protein, sucrose, hydrolyzed gelatin, sodium chloride, monosodium L-glutamate, urea, sodium phosphate dibasic, potassium phosphate monobasic, potassium chloride, neomycin, bovine calf serum
Yellow Fever (YF-Vax)	2/2019	sorbitol, gelatin, sodium chloride
Zoster (Shingles) (Zostavax) Frozen	1/2019	MRC-5 human diploid cells, including DNA & protein, sucrose, hydrolyzed porcine gelatin, sodium chloride, monosodium L-glutamate, sodium phosphate dibasic, potassium phosphate monobasic, potassium chloride; neomycin, bovine calf serum

Vaccine	Date	Contains
Zoster (Shingles) (Zostavax) Refrigerator Stable	8/2018	MRC-5 human diploid cells, including DNA & protein, sucrose, hydrolyzed porcine gelatin, urea, sodium chloride, monosodium L-glutamate, sodium phosphate dibasic, potassium phosphate monobasic, potassium chloride, neomycin, bovine calf serum
Zoster (Shingles) (Shingrix)	2/2020*	sucrose, sodium chloride, dioleoyl phosphatidylcholine (DOPC), 3-O-desacetyl-4' monophosphoryl lipid A (MPL), QS-21 (a saponin purified from plant extract Quillaja saponaria Molina), potassium dihydrogen phosphate, cholesterol, sodium dihydrogen phosphate dihydrate, disodium phosphate anhydrous, dipotassium phosphate, polysorbate 80, host cell protein and DNA

Just Say – NOOOOOO !!!

by Rob Pue

This week, the Pfizer COVID-19 vaccine is scheduled to become available across the United States. Trucks carrying the vaccine rolled out of Michigan Sunday night, December 13. It's been reported that the first to receive this new vaccination will be nursing home residents, followed by healthcare workers. All nursing homes in the United States are on the list for this warp-speed, fast-tracked vaccine, and undoubtedly there are many who will eagerly line up to take it. I will not be one of them.

While Pfizer officials have called the vaccine "completely safe and effective," there are many horror stories from tests of this and similar COVID vaccines from around the world... including from Australia, where trials of the vaccine were suddenly halted last week after multiple test subjects suddenly tested positive for HIV. One must wonder why people would develop HIV (AIDS) after getting the COVID vaccine... because the vaccine contains a protein from the HIV virus. Among many other dangerous — and SINISTER — ingredients.

So what's actually IN the COVID vaccine? Like many others, there's Formaldehyde, which is embalming fluid; then there's Aluminum, shown to cause neurotoxicity, Alzheimer's disease and cancer; next, an ingredient called Nagalase, which is a protein excreted by cancer cells. It's found in patients with cancer, autism, diabetes, immune disorders and viral and bacterial infections.

And in case you were wondering, the "rumors" about aborted fetal tissue are true. The Pfizer COVID vaccine contains cells from an aborted 14-week-old Caucasian male, containing complete human genome DNA. Mercury is also a prominent ingredient. Mercury is known to cause genetic mutation and negative effects on the nervous system and reproductive organs. Exposure to mercury in unborn babies has been proven to cause severe birth defects.

You may be interested to know that the COVID vaccine ALSO contains a strain of the coronavirus itself — taken from chimpanzees — and engineered to create the spike protein of SARS-CoV-2, the virus that CAUSES COVID-19.

Further, there's an ingredient called "HEK-293." This refers to "human embryonic kidney cells," which are again taken from aborted babies, but these are a completely different human cell line.

So in addition to all the toxic chemicals I mentioned, we have multiple DNA cells from aborted babies, coronavirus taken from chimpanzees — and one MORE ingredient that should concern you... it's called LUCIFERASE. This is a bioluminescent photo-protein with the ability to monitor and track a person's health and vaccination status digitally. This is a cloned gene from the North American firefly... interesting, when you consider that the Bible refers to Satan or Beelzebub as the "Lord of the Flies."

Some have wondered if this new COVID vaccine will be a form of the "mark of the beast." It's already been stated in multiple countries — including the USA — that the vaccine SHOULD be made mandatory, and unless one has proof of vaccination, they'll need to be "quarantined" indefinitely, which means you will not be able to buy or sell, hold a job, or travel outside your home. In Canada, "quarantine camps" are now being fast-tracked in every Canadian province, each one able to hold up to 1600 people. These camps are being prepared now, for those who refuse vaccination, and therefore must be considered a public health risk and quarantined under supervision. And according to reports straight out of Canadian parliament, these camps will be operated by an unspecified "third party."

There are some more very interesting points regarding this new vaccine you should be aware of. For some reason, it needs to be stored at a temperature of -94 degrees. This requires special freezers, because most freezers — even those used in hospitals — do not go that cold. It turns out there are only two companies in the world that make freezers that will reach -94 degrees, and these units are extremely expensive.

Somebody is getting quite wealthy from this new experiment on the human population, in more ways than one.

You should also note that it's required that resuscitation facilities be available in close proximity to any facility administering the vaccine. Resuscitation facilities! Why would resuscitation be necessary if this were a completely SAFE vaccine to take? Clearly, it's NOT safe. Trials from around the world have already shown serious adverse side effects. These include: Bells Palsy, where one side of your face basically becomes paralyzed, Guillain-Barre Syndrome, Encephalitis, convulsions and seizures, stroke, Anaphylaxis, Acute Myocardial Infarction (in other words, a heart attack), Autoimmune Disease/HIV/AIDS, sterility in both women and men... and death.

The list of potential side effects is MUCH more extensive. I've only mentioned a few of the likely outcomes of this vaccine. So-called "health experts" have already expressed concern that those who take the first dose of the vaccine will become so terribly sick from it, that they'll then refuse the required SECOND dose... and they've come right out and stated that the second dose will make you SO sick that you will NEED to factor in your work schedule when scheduling the second dose, because you WILL — absolutely — be too sick to work for at least a week, and possibly longer.

I find it interesting that they're using the actual coronavirus (again, taken from chimpanzees) in this vaccine. Why would they do that? Well, that's how vaccines work — they introduce the virus to a person's immune system, so that one's immune system is stimulated to fight off the infection. But these are the same people who have stated that LOCKDOWNS are absolutely necessary and that the idea of “herd immunity” — where a population contracts an illness, their immune systems kick in and build a defense and an immunity to the illness — is absolute nonsense.

So instead of focusing on teaching people how to build and strengthen their own immune systems to fight off this virus, (which more than 99% recover from naturally), they’re actually now injecting people with the virus itself — along with genetically-modified DNA strands and flat-out POISONS. Why? Follow the money. The coronavirus “PLANNED-demic” has been a huge money-maker for many of the world’s top corporations. Consider Amazon.com as just one example in the retail industry. While the majority of the world was under “lockdown” and local stores forced to close their doors; others requiring masking, social distancing and other draconian measures in order to enter, Amazon’s business more than doubled.

But that’s retail... “peanuts” compared to the profits being raked in now by Big Pharma. Consider that companies like Pfizer, Moderna and others in the vaccine industry have received billions of dollars in research funds to develop this “horror movie.” Then consider the billions of DOSES of the vaccine they’ve already sold, with billions more on the way; not to mention the two sole companies in the world that will benefit from the freezers to store the vaccine in, which I mentioned previously, and things become very clear. This has never been about anyone’s HEALTH. If it were, we would have been encouraged to strengthen our immune systems, develop “herd immunity,” and move on. But such ideas were quickly censored from social and alternative media and never once even MENTIONED by health officials or the mainstream media. It’s a known fact that “Big Pharma” is the largest business in the world, with more power, influence and control than even Big Oil. You may be interested to know, also, that the pharmaceutical industry has spent more than $4 BILLION dollars on lobbying our legislators over the past 20 years — more than any other industry in the world. Is it any wonder that vaccine manufacturers now have immunity from lawsuits when the vaccines cause irreparable harm and even death?

One more interesting point to consider regarding this new vaccine. Just as the trucks carrying the vaccine were rolling out of Michigan Sunday night, President Trump stated that “people working in the White House should receive the vaccine somewhat later in the program,” and added, “I am not scheduled to take the vaccine, but look forward to doing so at the appropriate time.” I would seriously doubt that Dr. Fauci, Debra Birx, Bill Gates and the others who have pushed this so-called “remedy” will be taking the vaccine any time soon.

Still, I’ve been monitoring public comments as hospitals announce their plans to administer the vaccine. A frightening number of people are extremely eager to get it, and are quite hostile to anyone who dissents. They’ve been totally and thoroughly brainwashed now, by the mainstream media, and they can’t wait to have these poisons injected into themselves and their children, as soon as possible.

Before I run out of time, I need to tell you about one more thing I discovered while doing research for this message. The “Luciferase” ingredient in the new COVID vaccine — that bioluminescent photo-protein with the ability to monitor and track your health and vaccination status digitally... Luciferase goes hand-in-hand with something Bill Gates has been working on and is now ready to implement. It's called the "Human Implantable Quantum Dot Microneedle Vaccination Delivery System."

This is a "band-aid" or "patch" system which delivers the vaccine through tiny "needles" within the patch, which later dissolve beneath the skin. These "needles" are literally modeled after the fangs of a snake. It's how snakes inject venom in their prey. But in order for this Quantum Dot Microneedle Vaccination Delivery System to work, it requires the use of the bioluminescent "Luciferase."

This will not only deliver the vaccine, but it will also create an invisible "tattoo" or "mark" — so by simply scanning the area of the body that was implanted with these micro-needles, government and health officials (and others) will be able to tell if you've been vaccinated, and thereby be allowed to shop at stores, eat at restaurants, travel freely, work or live any sort of normal life. We're already being trained and conditioned to being "scanned" — many public places are requiring people to have their foreheads scanned (to take their temperatures) before being allowed to enter.

I'm not a Bible scholar but I do have to wonder about the words of Revelation 16: "The first angel went and poured out his bowl on the land and ugly, festering sores broke out on the people who had the mark of the beast and worshiped it's image." Festering sores and boils — this is just likely ONE of the side effects of this COVID vaccine and the micro-needle delivery system... which will likely be touted as a much more "easy and convenient" way to comply to this new world order mandate.

In Galatians 5:19-20, Paul writes, "The acts of the sinful nature are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity and debauchery; idolatry and witchcraft." We should note that the New Testament was originally written in Greek, and the Greek word used in this passage for "witchcraft" is "Pharmakeia." It's root word is "Pharmakon," which refers to a "druggist, pharmacist, poisoner, magician or sorcerer." Our modern words "Pharmacy" and "Pharmaceutical" come directly from the Greek word for witchcraft. Our modern day dictionary defines "Pharmakeia" as "the use of, or administering of drugs," "poisoning," "the use of drugs, potions, spells, witchcraft and sorcery."

In the 1980s, there was a big push against illicit drugs. I remember TV and radio "public service announcements" touting the catch phrase, "Just Say No!" Interestingly, it was right about that same time that the pharmaceutical industry exploded. Today, you will see an ad for a prescription drug in every magazine, newspaper and every fifteen minutes on every television show. You should also note that in every ad, they spend HALF of their very expensive air-time or print space pushing the drug and the other half warning of the very dangerous side effects of the drug. (Read the fine print). Some of those side effects are outrageously insane. If those are the SIDE effects, I'd much rather have the disease!

Just in the last few years, there's been a 400% increase in the use of antidepressant drugs. And what's the main side effect of most every antidepressant drug? By the drug-makers' own admission, it is "the increased risk of suicidal thoughts and behaviors."

Remember, friends, Satan comes as an angel of light but he's a liar and a deceiver and there is NO truth in him. While the drugs currently being pushed by Big Pharma have earned them grotesque profits, those profits pale in comparison to those they make on vaccines. Remember, they can be sued for side effects of drugs, but they're IMMUNE from prosecution when a vaccine kills you.

There's so much more I could include in this message. But for now, suffice to say the vaccine they're rolling out this week is just one piece of the giant jigsaw puzzle that began with the coronavirus.

This "Planned-demic" also entails the collapse of the world-wide economy; the overthrow of the United States (and the demise of western civilization and national sovereignty) through election fraud; population control through the use of mandatory vaccination; the "Great Reset" whereby all private property will be confiscated in exchange for the promise of a "universal basic income" for all; and of course, absolute, totalitarian control of every man, woman and child on planet earth through a digital implant tracking device. This whole thing, and all that's been revealed this year, is ABSOLUTELY DIABOLICAL. I urge you to do your due diligence regarding this vaccine — and every other "mandate" the "powers that be" are foisting upon us now. And when it comes YOUR turn, I urge you: JUST SAY 'NO!'

Folks, summer is continuing to carry on Dr. Ron Green's business since Dr. Ron's retirement. Here is a list of the excellent products she offers.

Ministers Still Pressuring Boris Johnson to Introduce "Domestic Passports" To Enter Cinemas, Live Events

Authored by Paul Joseph Watson via Summit News.

Ministers are still pressuring Prime Minister Boris Johnson to introduce 'domestic passports' that would only allow those who have taken the COVID-19 vaccine to enter venues such as cinemas, sports stadiums and even pubs and restaurants.

As we highlighted earlier this week, the British government denied for months that it was planning vaccine passports for international travel, but then did a 180 and indicated they were all but inevitable.

Authorities then also suggested that domestic passports could also be mandated that would prevent people who haven't taken the coronavirus jab from entering cinemas, bars, restaurants and even shops.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson quickly tried to dismiss the idea of a domestic vaccine passport on Monday, but in the same breath said that businesses would adopt an identical system anyway.

"I think that will be the route that we go down and that businesses will go down," Johnson said on Monday, adding:

"You are already seeing lots of business using the potential of rapid, on-the-day testing as well. I think that, in combination with vaccination, will probably be the route forward."

According to the Times, ministers are putting pressure on Johnson to formally codify a domestic passport that would leave millions of people who don't take the vaccine under indefinite lockdown.

"We're talking about industries that are dying here. In terms of getting live music, theatre and other parts of the entertainment industry back on their feet, it seems an obvious thing to do once the majority of people have been vaccinated," a senior minister told the newspaper.

Foreign Secretary Dominic Raab also suggested over the weekend that immunity certificates may even be needed to enter supermarkets, telling LBC that the idea “hasn’t been ruled out and it’s under consideration, but of course you’ve got to make it workable.”

Some major companies have also suggested that they will begin to phase in a “no jab, no job” policy.

The notion that you will have to have taken a vaccine to even enter a shop to buy food renders ludicrous the government’s assertion that the vaccine isn’t mandatory.

If they follow through on these proposals, it will be mandatory for anyone who wants to live anything approaching a normal life.

Meanwhile, the prospect of literally having to have a ‘mark’ to buy or sell is definitely going to get the attention of fans of Revelation 13:17.

The mRNA COVID Vaccine Is Not a Vaccine

34

By Makia Freeman

Global Research, January 24, 2021

First posted by Global Research on January 15, 2021

It's NOT a vaccine. The mRNA COVID vaccine now being militarily deployed in many nations around the world, is NOT a vaccine. I repeat: it is not a vaccine. It is many things indeed, but a vaccine is not one of them. We have to awaken to the fact that the COVID scamdemic has rapidly accelerated the technocratic and transhumanistic aspects of the New World Order (NWO) to the point where people are blindly lining up to get injected with a "treatment" which is also a chemical device, an operating system, a synthetic pathogen and chemical pathogen production device. As covered in previous articles, this new COVID vax is a completely new kind of technology, potentially even more dangerous than your average toxic vaccine. In this article, we will explore in more depth what this mRNA vaccine is.

Doctors David Martin and Judy Mikovits Expose How So-Called COVID Vaccine is Not a Vaccine

Listen to this short excerpt featuring doctors David Martin and Judy Mikovits (who have both been very outspoken thus far in exposing the COVID plandemic) who are speaking with Robert Kennedy Jr. and lawyer Rocco Galati, who is representing a Canadian freedom group suing the government for the entire COVID scam. David Martin makes some extremely important points about how we can't accurately label the device Moderna and Pfizer are pushing as a vaccine, because both medically and legally, is not a vaccine:

"This is not a vaccine ... using the term vaccine to sneak this thing under public health exemptions ... This is a mRNA packaged in a fat envelope that is delivered to a cell. It is a medical device designed to stimulate the human cell into becoming a pathogen creator. It is not a vaccine! Vaccines actually are a legally defined term ... under public health law ... under CDC and FDA standards, and a vaccine specifically has to stimulate both an immunity within the person receiving it, but it also has to disrupt transmission ... They have been abundantly clear in saying that the mRNA strand that is going into the cell is not to stop transmission. It is a treatment. But if it was discussed as a treatment, it would not get the sympathetic ear of public health authorities, because then people would say "What other treatments are there?"

The use of the term vaccine is unconscionable ... because it actually is the sucker punch to open and free discourse ... Moderna was started as a chemotherapy company for cancer, not a vaccine manufacturer for SARS ... if we said we're going to give people prophylactic chemo for the cancer they don't have, you'd be laughed out of a room, because it's a stupid idea. That's exactly what this is! This is a mechanical device, in the form of a very small packet of technology, that is being inserted into the human system to activate the cell to become a pathogen manufacturing site.

The only reason why the term [vaccine] is being used is to abuse the 1905 Jacobsen case that has been misrepresented since it was written. If we were honest with this, we would actually call it what it is: it is a chemical pathogen device, that is actually meant to unleash a chemical pathogen production action within the cell. It is a medical device, not a drug, because it meets the CDRH [Center for Devices and Radiological Health] definition of a device.

It is made to make you sick ... 80% of the people who are exposed to allegedly the virus [SARS-Cov-2] have no symptoms at all ... 80% of people who get this injected into them have a clinical adverse event. You are getting injected with a chemical substance to induce illness, not to induce a[n] immuno-transmissive response. In other words, nothing about this is going to stop you transmitting anything. This is about getting you sick, and having your own cells be the thing that get you sick."

Judy Mikovits also chips in with this:

"It's a synthetic pathogen. They've literally injected this pathogenic part of the virus into every cell of the body ... it can actually directly cause multiple sclerosis, Lou Gehrig's disease, Alzheimer's disease ... it can cause accelerated cancer ... that's what the expression of that piece of virus ... has been known to do for decades."

The mRNA vaccine operating system "software of life". Image credit: Moderna

COVID Vaccine is an Operating System, Says Moderna

The COVID mRNA Vaccine is an operating system which can program your DNA, and therefore program you, at your core essential blueprint level. Is this an exaggeration? No it's not. Moderna states on their website that their mRNA technology platform is a "software of life" and "functions very much like an operating system on a computer." This is straight from their website:

"It is designed so that it can plug and play interchangeably with different programs. In our case, the "program" or "app" is our mRNA drug – the unique mRNA sequence that codes for a protein."

The Game Plan: Making Every Human into a Digital Node on the Control Grid

We are fast moving into the world of transhumanism, where our natural biological bodies are hijacked and infiltrated with synthetic parts, starting at the nanoparticle level. The NWO controllers want to download some kind of Microsoft office system or software into your body and brain, and hook you up to the JEDI and/or Amazon-CIA cloud, so they can have direct access to your brain. Then, they can roll out "vaccines" which are not vaccines to continually update you, just like computer software gets regular updates. Viruses, real or not, and vaccines, real or not, are just means to achieve this goal.

Turning Humans into Commodities via Social Credit Currency

Alison McDowell sums up the current transhumanistic NWO path of highest probability below, which involves social credit, 5G, the Smart Grid and AI to induce planetary-wide compliance:

"Within the tech-no-logic system, total compliance will be demanded. Approved behavior becomes currency, tokenized on blockchain and monitored by sensors and AI. They are training us for a future where we compete with one another to see who is the best behaved, the most docile. Surviving will mean conforming to the strident terms of psychopathic financial agreements. To obtain the data needed to verify claims embedded in twisted "pay for success" deals, our mother, the earth, must be remade as a geo-fenced digital prison using 5G and satellite constellations. All of your data will be added to your "permanent record" to evaluate your value as human capital for investor portfolios. The billionaires envision a future where freedom is a privilege limited to themselves, their functionaries, and the robots they control. Be assured AI is already keeping tabs, and social credit scoring is well underway."

It is a grim future, however it is not set in stone. I agree wholeheartedly with McDowell that we do NOT have to accept this as our fate or experience such a painful timeline IF we can wake up quickly and change. However, we must first accept this is the probable path we are on. Like it or not, this is the current trajectory. How do we change it? Firstly by looking within. To change ourselves, we must change our inner world and change our perception, and so therefore change our reality:

"This planned future, however, is NOT preordained. Totalitarian transhumanism is not a foregone conclusion. Trudell's remedy? Change our perception of reality through active non-cooperation. Manifest in our hearts, minds, and actions the world we desire. Where they engineer disconnect, RECONNECT with intention; not only with one another, but with ALL our relations and the land and the spiritual beings that exist beyond our senses. We must synchronize to change the vibrational reality, and that power exists within us as children of the earth."

This is not airy-fairy talk, but rather a realization that we are participating in co-creating a nightmare world by allowing our perception to be programmed to bring about the NWO. They are using our energy to do it! To reclaim our sovereignty, we must reclaim our perception by breaking down the programming that was inserted into us.

Final Thoughts: A Technocratic, Transhumanistic Tool

It is vital to know, and to tell others, that the current mRNA COVID vaccine is not a vaccine. This is not just because calling it a vaccine gives Big Pharma legal immunity from damages, but also for all the reasons listed above. These devices are designed to reprogram you at the fundamental level. They are not vaccines, they are not drugs, and in my opinion, they are not treatments or medicine. As scary as these terms are, I would go beyond just calling them chemical devices, operating systems, synthetic pathogens and chemical pathogen production devices, which are already illuminating terms and horrible enough. I would call them technocratic, transhumanistic tools to permanently change your genetics and transform you into a synthetic human. They are symbolic of just how swiftly the NWO agenda is being made manifest in our physical reality, and hopefully a wake-up call to everyone to strive harder to stop this dark, nefarious agenda while there is still time.

“Money” is a medium of exchange that the central bankers create as a debt to themselves. It is a mental concept, a notion of value expressed in terms of some coupon (i.e. currency.) It has no inherent value. Its value is based on its acceptance for goods or services and is linked to the “credit” of the issuing nation. Your “money” is just digits on a ledger kept by the central bankers, the same people who encourage sodomy.

The criminal cabal in charge has been producing this “money” and stuffing its pockets and those of its friends. Is there any limit to the amount they will produce? If the “debt” doubled to $70 trillion, would it make any difference?

“Debt” is simply the money supply. It will never be repaid and shouldn’t be. Interest rates are near zero so there’s no limit to the amount they can create.

CBS DECLARES: You'll Need A COVID 'Vaccination Passport' To Travel By Summer 2021

National File – by Frank Salvato

As the United States prepares to open back up after the unnecessarily long COVID lockdowns, the mainstream media is shaping the narrative that "vaccination passports" will not only be required for travel, but that they will arrive as a necessity by this summer.

CBS News travel editor, Peter Greenberg, almost appeared gleeful when he predicted two things: that travel – both domestic and international – would most likely return this summer, and that there would be a prerequisite to being able to travel.

Greenberg stated bluntly that in order to travel you will most likely need proof that you've been vaccinated for COVID. Vaccination passports, he said, will be the new standard in travel.

"It will be required," Greenberg said. "The real question is what technology will be available to create a universally acceptable and universally readable document that can't be forged."

He noted that preliminary versions of a vaccine passport – or health passport – are being developed by several outlets, in both the public and private sectors – and in some cases a combination of both, around the world.

Greenberg spotlighted the effort taking place in Denmark, pointing out that the Nordic nation is creating a digital passport for citizens that will contain all your current medical information that can be updatable on that digital card."

The CBS News reporter, speaking with a level of authority usually reserved for higher-level medical professionals intimate with the COVID pandemic, said while digital versions of "your papers" appear to be the goal, early models will likely be physical.

One entrepreneur has come up with two versions of a vaccination passport, one for international travel and another for domestic. The international version has e-vaccine technology that is tantamount to an electronic version of your health records.

His domestic – or basic version (without the e-vaccine technology), he suggests, would be more appropriate for domestic travel and daily interactions. Both versions hold information about which vaccine was administered, where it was administered, and when.

Big Brother Is Spying On You In Thousands Of Ways, And All Of That Info Now Goes Into Centralized "Fusion Systems"

End of American Dream – by Michael Snyder

Big Brother is watching you. Sadly, most people don't realize how extensive the surveillance grid has now become. As you drive to work or to school, license plate readers are systematically tracking where you travel. In major cities, thousands of highly advanced security cameras (many equipped with facial recognition technology) are monitoring your every move. If authorities detect that you are doing something suspicious, they can quickly pull up your criminal, financial and medical records. Of course if they want to dig deeper, your phone and your computer are constantly producing a treasure trove of surveillance data. Nothing that you do on either one of them is ever private.

In the past, compiling all of that information would take a great deal of time. But now tech giants such as Microsoft, Motorola, Cisco and Palantir are selling "fusion systems" to governments all over the planet. These "fusion systems" can instantly integrate surveillance data from thousands of different sources, and this has totally transformed how law enforcement is conducted in many of our largest cities.

Arthur Holland Michel is a senior fellow at the Carnegie Council for Ethics in International Affairs, and he was given a tour of a "fusion system" that is used by the city of Chicago called Citigraf...

He clicked "INVESTIGATE," and Citigraf got to work on the reported assault. The software runs on what Genetec calls a "correlation engine," a suite of algorithms that trawl through a city's historical police records and live sensor feeds, looking for patterns and connections. Seconds later, a long list of possible leads appeared onscreen, including a lineup of individuals previously arrested in the neighborhood for violent crimes, the home addresses of parolees living nearby, a catalog of similar recent 911 calls, photographs and license plate numbers of vehicles that had been detected speeding away from the scene, and video feeds from any cameras that might have picked up evidence of the crime itself, including those mounted on passing buses and trains. More than enough information, in other words, for an officer to respond to that original 911 call with a nearly telepathic sense of what has just unfolded.

But these systems are not just used to track down criminals.

In fact, they can be used to investigate literally anyone.

On another occasion, Arthur Holland Michel got the opportunity to test out the "fusion system" that Microsoft had built for New York City...

The NYPD official showed me how he could pull up any city resident's rap sheet, lists of their known associates, cases in which they were named as a victim of a crime or as a witness, and, if they had a car, a heatmap of where they tended to drive and a full history of their parking violations. Then he handed me the phone. Go ahead, he said; search a name.

A flurry of people came to mind: Friends. Lovers. Enemies. In the end, I chose the victim of a shooting I'd witnessed in Brooklyn a couple of years earlier. He popped right up, along with what felt like more personal information than I, or even perhaps a curious officer, had any right to know without a court order. Feeling a little dizzy, I gave the phone back.

If this is what is going on in major cities such as Chicago and New York, can you imagine the technology that the alphabet agencies of the federal government must now possess?

Of course this isn't just happening in the United States.

On the other side of the Atlantic, a joint European surveillance project known as ROXANNE is causing a great deal of concern...

An acronym for Read time netwOrk, teXt, and speaker ANalytics for combating orgaNized crimeE, it was announced in November the Republic's involvement in the project currently being developed in Switzerland.

A biometrics based platform ostensibly to monitor and crack down on organised crime, an additional application of ROXANNE which its creators advertise freely is the ability to monitor those guilty of alleged hate speech and political extremism.

Strict new laws against "hate speech" and "political extremism" are being instituted all over Europe, and this new tool will help to track down "thought criminals".

In particular, this new tool will be heavily monitoring "social media sites such as Facebook, YouTube as well as normal telecommunications platforms"...

A product of the EU funded Horizon 2020 to foster new surveillance technology, ROXANNE works across social media sites such as Facebook, YouTube as well as normal telecommunications platforms to identify, categorise, and track faces and voices enabling authorities to paint a more in depth picture of the network being investigated, whether it be in relation to criminal activity or those deemed politically extreme.

Enabling authorities to draw on raw data from a variety of sources and platforms in order to recognise common speech patterns, facial features, and geolocation, the end result is both to identify suspects and paint an intricate picture of the networks being put under the microscope.

So if you live in Europe and you think that you might be guilty of "thought crime" at some point, you might want to get rid of your phone and your computer.

Seriously.

Things really have gotten that bad over there, and it is just a matter of time before the madness gets to the same level in the United States, because we are going down the exact same road.

Here in the U.S., more political voices are being "deplatformed" with each passing day. Progressive reporter Jordan Chariton originally cheered when conservatives were being deplatformed, but at this point he regrets his calls for censorship now that YouTube has taken down one of his videos...

However, after YouTube pulled video from his own channel featuring footage of the January 6 riot for violating the platform's policies against "spam and deceptive practices," the Chariton reversed his position.

"With time to reflect, & seeing Silicon Valley's censorship onslaught, I regret this tweet made in [the] heat of moment," the progressive journalist wrote. "Whether certain cable/YouTube outlets mislead audiences w/ dishonest claims lacking real evidence, they shouldn't be targeted."

It is all fun and games when it is happening to "the other side", but when it happens to you suddenly it becomes real.

They really do want to control what all of us do, say and think, and the Big Brother surveillance grid is becoming more suffocating with each passing year.

If we do not put limits on this technology while we still can, it is just a matter of time before our society becomes a dystopian nightmare far more horrible than anything than George Orwell ever dared to imagine.

Cashing in on Covid: Facial Recognition and Thermal Imaging Techs Are Booming at the Cost of Your Privacy

TOPICS: Biometrics Facial Recognition Privacy Robert Wheeler Surveillance
FEBRUARY 15, 2021

By Robert Wheeler

The COVID-19 pandemic has proven to be the biggest gift possible for tyrants all across the globe. From economic power grabs made by corporations and the incineration of basic civil liberties, the ruling class has introduced itself as the arbiters and dictators of virtually all human interaction.

And the surveillance industry has also benefited massively from the pandemic.

What's new in facial recognition?

For instance, facial recognition technology is being rolled out at an alarmingly fast pace. The tech is more and more exact in its capabilities and no longer handicapped by mask wearing or face coverings. In a report by the Department of Homeland Security released in early January 2021, the department admitted to having conducted tests regarding the efficacy of facial recognition technologies in relation to mask wearers.

The test was administered by the DHS Science and Technology Directorate and were conducted as a part of STD's Biometric Technology Rally, an event held during the fall at the Maryland Test Facility. DHS claims that the success rate for this technology could reduce the need for passengers or travelers to remove their masks at airports or ports of entry.

According to DHS,

The third annual rally evaluated the ability of biometric acquisition systems and matching algorithms to reliably collect and match images of individuals wearing a diverse array of face masks. Previous rallies show biometric systems can excel at rapidly processing high volumes of travelers using face recognition. This year's focused on using such systems to detect and recognize travelers without asking them to remove their masks, thereby protecting both the public and frontline workers during the COVID-19 era.

The event included 10 days of human testing which involved 60 facial recognition configurations (which used six face and/or iris scanning systems with 10 matching algorithms) and took advantage of 582 "diverse" test volunteers that represented 60 countries. The systems were then evaluated based upon their ability to take images of each volunteer reliably without masks, processing time, and overall satisfaction.

The results? According to the Biometric Rally website:

- Without masks, the technology had an average 93% identification rate. The best system had a rate of 100%.
- With masks, the technology had an average of 77% accuracy and the best performing system had a rate of 96%.

So much for the theory that “at least the masks will make it harder for them to use facial rec on us.”

Then there's thermal imaging, too.

But that's not the only technology that is booming as a result the meeting between the “pandemic” and the surveillance state. Thermal imaging is also in demand as governments across the world begin deploying the technology at airports, railways, and public gathering spaces. The technology is designed to measure a person's body temperature. In this instance, it will be used to measure whether or not a person has a fever.

Although, a number of American companies are in on the act – Infrared Cameras, Inc. and Omnisense – Chinese companies are also making lots of money on the new rollout, including a company ironically from Wuhan, Wuhan Guide Infrared Co. In fact, the company is making so many that the Chinese military is having to wait for its orders for other products that the company makes.

And if Americans think their “representatives” are going to do anything to stop the rollout, they're wrong. As TravelPulse writes,

On Friday, U.S. Senate Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation Ranking Member Maria Cantwell of Washington and Senator Rick Scott of Florida introduced a proposal for bipartisan legislation that would require the Transportation Security Administration (TSA) to implement temperature screenings at existing airport checkpoints in order to enhance the safety of passenger air travel amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Cantwell-Scott ‘Fly Safe and Healthy Act of 2020’ (S. 4623) would task the TSA with ultimately deploying a uniform temperature-check program across the nation's airports; but, first, to thoroughly test the technology in various scenarios as part of a pilot program prior to the final rollout.

Airport temperature checks would be conducted using innovative, contactless, thermal-camera technology capable of automatically screening large numbers of passengers passing through existing TSA checkpoints. It's seamless and non-invasive, and such systems have already proven effective for identifying infected individuals and mitigating COVID-19's spread in other countries.

Senators like Rick Scott have been advocating heavily for the technology. His argument, like the argument of others, is that the tech is needed to help our economy rebound. Of course, the economic crisis in the United States was not caused by a lack of thermal imaging but by government itself, specifically people like Rick Scott. But that's another story for another time....

It won't stop with taking your temperature.

Of course, we all know the surveillance isn't going to stop merely at temperature checks. Back in 2011, an article was published by the BBC entitled, “New Emotion Detector Can See When We're Lying.” The system, like the temp checkers, is one of interlocked video cameras connected to a “high-resolution thermal imaging sensor and a suite of algorithms.”

The idea is that, since humans give away their emotions through a variety of unconscious means, the ability to read facial cues enables security to interpret the motives of “potential terrorists.” Of course, the label of “potential terrorist” is one that has been applied to virtually every citizen within and without of a western nations' borders. Nevertheless, in order to measure “emotions,” the system uses eye movements, dilated pupils, biting, nose wrinkling, pressing lips together, heavy breathing, swallowing, blinking, and other facial movements as well as swelling blood vessels around the eyes.

Keep in mind, this technology existed in 2011 and already took advantage of thermal imaging. We are not in uncharted territory here, we are merely witnessing the unfolding of an agenda that was planned long ago.

Privacy is a thing of the past and has been for a long time. We've warned about how frequently Americans are being surveilled, about Ring doorbells, about Amazon's servers storing government databases to identify us, and about Smart appliances. We've talked about Chinese "mind-reading" technology and their social credit system. The pieces are in place – now they're just perfecting what already exists.

What steps, if any, are you taking to avoid surveillance? Do you feel that the pandemic has been used to spring the trap that was already set for us? What are your thoughts on the high-tech facial recognition and thermal imaging devices in use practically everywhere? Let's talk about it in the comments.

Hi-tech brain implants the size of a salt grain could let people choose their own mood

Scientists in South Korea have suppressed cocaine-induced behaviour in rats injected with the drug using the chips, even working out how to charge them remotely

Korean scientists have developed a brain implant with LEDs the size a grain of salt which could control our moods via a smartphone.

The amazing researchers at the Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology (KAIST) have even worked out how to charge the device from outside the body.

The bluetooth-enabled nanochips use light to emit messages to the brain's neurons and scientists believe it could eventually be used in the treatment of Parkinson's disease and depression.

KAIST boffins said they demonstrated how it can manipulate the brain in an experiment with rats injected with cocaine said sciencetimes.com

The implants successfully suppressed "cocaine-induced behaviours", according to Jeong-Hoon Kim, a professor of physiology at Yonsei University's College of Medicine.

He said: "The fact that we can control a specific behaviour of animals, by delivering light stimulation into the brain just with a simple manipulation of a smartphone app, watching freely moving animals nearby, is very interesting and stimulates a lot of imagination.

"This technology will facilitate various avenues of brain research."

The device is mounted in the brain with the LEDs mounted on probes the width of a human hair and controlled wirelessly by a smartphone - but scientists have now made an impressive tweak to the system.

Rodents were given cocaine and the new wireless bluetooth implants successfully stopped them having cocaine-induced symptoms (Image: Getty Images)

The new and improved version incorporates a wireless energy harvester with a coil antenna that captures alternating magnetic fields which are harmlessly pulsed through the skin, generating electricity and charging the small battery onboard.

It avoids the need for invasive surgery to replace worn-out batteries and allows seamless treatment said Professor Jae-Woong Jeong, who led the research team.

He added: "We believe that the same basic technology can be applied to various types of implants, including deep brain stimulators, and cardiac and gastric pacemakers, to reduce the burden on patients for long-term use within the body."

It's a step up from previous devices and is made of ultra-soft and bio-compliant polymers that provide compatibility with brain tissue and targets specific neurons in the brain.

Co-lead author of the study, which was published in Nature Communications this month, is Min Jeong Ku, a researcher at Yonsei University's College of Medicine.

He said: "This device can be operated anywhere and anytime to manipulate neural circuits, which makes it a highly versatile tool for investigating brain functions."

Merging Human Brain Cells & Microchips: Vaccine Generated Zombies

By Don Campbell, RBN host of The Perfect Storm
Website: MorningStarsTale.com

By Lee Austin

In the Book of Daniel Chapter 2 verse 43 it says, "As you saw iron mixed with ceramic clay, they will mingle with the seed of men; but they will not adhere to one another, just as iron does not mix with clay."

To the Luciferian elite, the final age before the second coming of Jesus Christ is known as the age of Aquarius, the fifth age or stone kingdom. During the seven year tribulation, those remaining, will witness the full implementation of man's attempt to mix the iron machine and clay man.

Transhumanism goal is to merge man with machine and avoid the wages of sin, which are death. By uploading the mind, will and emotions into an avatar, transhumanists dream of achieving the Singularity. Eternal life apart from God.

Currently scientists from England's Aston University are attempting to merge human brain stem cells into AI microchips. Their goal is to allow AI to access the human brain's cognitive abilities. In other words, mixing iron and clay.

In the past, researchers work focused on the human brain and AI algorithms as separate entities working in a symbiotic relationship. However, with the advent of "Neu-ChiP," merging the physical brain with AI is the goal line for the Transhumanists.

According to University mathematician David Saad "Our aim is to harness the unrivaled computing power of the human brain to dramatically increase the ability of computers to help us solve complex problems." We believe this project has the potential to break through current limitations of processing power and energy consumption to bring about a paradigm shift in machine learning technology."

Until now, AI to human brain interface has depended on artificial neurons. By inserting the human brain stem cell into the machine, organic neurons will be able to interact directly, 24/7 with AI.

So, how does this tie into the alleged COVID-19 vaccine? I say alleged because I believe it is more of an operating system than a vaccine. Even Moderna admits as much on their own website. "Recognizing the broad potential of mRNA science, we set out to create an mRNA technology platform that functions very much like an operating system on a computer. It is designed so that it can plug and play interchangeably with different programs. In our case, the "program" or "app" is our mRNA drug – the unique mRNA sequence that codes for a protein."

If the mRNA vaccine does in fact systemically alter the human DNA, then by definition anyone who receives the jab, would begin to transition from human to Transhuman. Those on the pro-vaccine side of the argument say the mRNA degrades after a short period of time. However, all of this is moot until we see the end result of this grand experiment, which could be months, if not years away.

Have you noticed recently how many movies and TV shows have centered around the theme of zombies and a coming "zombie apocalypse?" In the past, I've dismissed the idea as a marketing ploy to generate revenue and instill fear. However, after watching videos of patients having adverse reactions to the vaccine, I beginning to see the possibility of vaccine generated zombies.

Consider the Book of Revelation Chapter 9 verse 6, "During those days people will seek death but will not find it; they will long to die, but death will elude them." At some point during the great tribulation, people will attempt to commit suicide, but fail. How is that possible, unless the person is no longer fully human, and has morphed into some sort of hybrid abomination. By nature, zombies appear to be dead and alive simultaneously, and yet incapable of dying. Is this what the Bible is illustrating?

Keep in mind the words of professor Klaus Schwab, founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum. "The end of The 4th Industrial Revolution will lead to a fusion of our physical, our digital, and our biological identities."

The goal of the Luciferian elite is apotheosis, the creation of a technocratic beast system. and a serf class plugged into an AI hive mind.

Are Christians Stupid or Brainwashed?

By Dave Daubenmire

"Stupidity is a more dangerous enemy of the good than malice. One may protest against evil; it can be exposed and, if need be, prevented by use of force. Evil always carries within itself the germ of its own subversion in that it leaves behind in human beings at least a sense of unease. Against stupidity we are defenseless. Neither protests nor the use of force accomplish anything here; reasons fall on deaf ears; facts that contradict one's prejudgment simply need not be believed – in such moments the stupid person even becomes critical – and when facts are irrefutable they are just pushed aside as inconsequential, as incidental. In all this the stupid person, in contrast to the malicious one, is utterly self-satisfied and, being easily irritated, becomes dangerous by going on the attack. For that reason, greater caution is called for when dealing with a stupid person than with a malicious one. Never again will we try to persuade the stupid person with reasons, for it is senseless and dangerous." —Dietrich Bonhoeffer

Stupid – marked by or resulting from unreasoned thinking or acting.

Did you ever take a good look in the mirror and ask yourself if the other side really is crazy or is the guy who is off his rocker the one smiling back at you in the glass? America has become so polarized that it seems to be impossible to "meet in the middle." Most of the people I encounter daily seem to be decent Americans, and although we differ on "politics" they are looking to live a good, peaceful life like everyone else.

I host a daily podcast and I have been steadily building an audience since I began it just over five years ago. We air every morning LIVE at 7:00 AM EST and we are developing a real camaraderie amongst our group. Of course, we are like minded, and, for the most part, share strong Christian values. The show is edgy, because we conduct a deep introspection on what it means to be a Christian. Not everyone likes it, or me, but I don't worry about popularity. I am not looking for agreement, I am searching for authenticity. We have a hearty discussion everyday, regarding Christianity and what it means to be Salt and Light.

If you are a knuckle-dragger who is sick of the "love-only" Gospel, you might find our gatherings tasty. One of the reoccurring themes is that all of us...believers and non-believers...have been taught things that simply are not true. Our willingness to discuss Christian issues openly and honestly is the glue that holds us together. It is amazing to hear what people believe, and how shallow their understanding often is. Our goal is to get others to think deeply about what they believe. Most believers simply repeat what some "pastor" taught them. Our job is to "contend for the faith."

We had an energetic and eye-opening debate last week on "How do you recognize a real Christian?" . You will be shocked to find out that most people can not clearly articulate an answer.

Yesterday, Wednesday, was another one of those shows as we pointed out that something is not true simply because you believe it. In fact, all wrong behavior begins with wrong thinking. Most people, if they knew the truth, would usually make the correct decision about a myriad of issues they are facing. Very few people make lousy decisions on purpose. Including Democrats. They are not all bad people...just misinformed.

We love to ask ourselves, "How can they make such poor choices?" As if we Christians always use our brains. They call that "acting stupid." But some of the stupidest people I know are Christians.

Before we cast stones at the uninformed, perhaps we should ask ourselves which is worse: Fooling ourselves, or being fooled by others? Here is a list of stupid things that our "government" does that Christians dutifully accept.

- Christians do not get involved in politics and wonder why America is going to hell.
- They send their kids to public schools and are surprised when they hate God and leave the Church.
- Bruce Jenner declares himself to be a woman and Christians believe him.
- They pray for abortion to end but allow their tax dollars to fund Planned Parenthood.
- "Doctors" says unborn babies are not alive and Christians trust them to vaccinate us.
- They wear masks to prevent a disease that has a 98% survival rate.
- They obey the godless government and disobey the teachings of the Bible.
- The government seeds the clouds with chemicals, and we wonder why we get sick.
- Genetically Modified Organisms poison our food and we gobble it down.
- We give millions to China to fund their Communist government.
- Churches declare themselves non-essential in the midst of a health crisis.
- The Church ordains what the Bible calls deviant.
- Public libraries promote sexual deviancy with Christian tax dollars.
- Children are taught they came from monkeys rather than from God.
- A man can marry another man, and we call it a family.
- The right to pray comes from the government.
- We make it harder to get a gun permit than a divorce.
- Burning and looting property is a Constitutional Right.
- Planned Parenthood can open but your hairdresser cannot.
- Eliminating the police will make us safer and the Church remains silent.
- Teachers should be paid while students stay at home.
- The Word of God is subject to SCOTUS review.
- Driving electric cars will impact the climate.
- The American people choose their leaders at the ballot box.
- All minorities think alike, and all whites are racists.

Jesus told us that we "shall know the Truth and the Truth will make us free." How can Christians remain silent while the Left pummels us with lies? Who really are the stupid ones?

Bonhoeffer also said, "Not to speak is to speak. Not to act is to act." If Christians don't oppose lies, who will?

Ignorance leads to bondage. No wonder our liberty is vanishing. Look in the mirror, dummy.

COVID: where are the courageous religious leaders?

by Jon Rappoport

“The people never give up their liberties but under some delusion.”
Edmund Burke, 1784

When are religious leaders going to issue demands to their members? Demands to express a duty to God first; above and beyond the restrictions of the State.

These leaders certainly believe God created humans with the quality of freedom. The Bible irrevocably states it. Therefore, under the cover of COVID, the State cannot remove that freedom.

The religious leaders must order their flocks to rebel.

Not just in order to attend church services; but to live without fear, out in the open, without hiding behind masks, without keeping their distance, without lockdowns, without sacrificing their right to earn a living.

Several Catholic prelates have declared the COVID fraud is being used as a rationale for creating an anti-spiritual new world order.

The next step is telling their Church members and believers to rebel, to choose The Good and God.

Every early story about every religion shows how the State power of the day had to be overcome. Is it now time to develop terminal amnesia about these origins?

Are those stories buried because they are inconvenient?

Quoting from an anonymously written article, "Ancient Christian Martyrdom: A Brief Overview":

"By 200 [AD], the [Christian] faith had permeated most regions of the Roman Empire, though Christians were mostly in the larger urban areas (Gaul, Lyons, Carthage, Rome). By 325, an estimated 7 million were Christians with as many as 2 million killed for the faith."

Among the reasons for this vast persecution: "Christian refusal to worship or honor other gods was a source of great contention."

"Christians were accused of being atheists because of their denial of the other gods and refusal of emperor worship. Thus, they were accused of treason to the state."

"For many provincial governors, Christians were considered social radicals, rather than being persecuted specifically for their faith only."

And now, in 2020, the major religious objection to COVID restrictions concerns the number of worshipers allowed inside a church during services?

Is this the evolution of faith, or its destruction, at the hands of the faithful themselves?

Is conscience "outmoded"?

Is civilization now so "advanced" that suffering and even dying for one's faith is considered absurd?

Is bargaining with the State over whether 10 or 50 members can enter a house of worship the cutting edge of rebellion?

It seems to me people should renounce their religion, if they're unwilling to go to the wall for it.

Just admit that what true faith requires is too much.

Jesus endured pain and torture, and surrendered his human form, in order to save humanity, but now faithful followers can declare their loyalty during online virtual services. Or from their cars, in a parking lot. Without feeling a tremor of conscience.

Over the years, I've heard many claims that America (and other Western nations) were created on the basis of Christian values. Putting aside counter-arguments, if that is the assertion, then where is the courage to back it up?

What good are these claims, if in a great crisis, there is no mass rebellion, out in the open, against the tyrannical State, on behalf of God?

Again, mass rebellion means the refusal to wear masks, the refusal to maintain distancing, the refusal to obey lockdowns or close businesses. It means reclaiming freedom.

But perhaps some people believe God wants obedience to the State. He wants his loyal followers to submit to the lockdowns. He wants worshipers to surrender to an all-encompassing secular new world order, in which citizens will function as pawns in a Brave New World technocracy. He wants the faithful to be stripped of their humanity.

If so, let's hear THAT argument.

Months ago, I said pastors and priests and other religious leaders should stand up in their houses of worship and confess their lack of courage and resign their positions. Confess they are unworthy to lead congregations. Ask for the most brave to step forward and take over.

That's a correct course of action.

Why should these religious leaders make superficial distinctions about the limits of rebellion? In order to maintain their non-profit status with the State? In order to keep their flock comfortable?

Jesus: "Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

But perhaps, in these enlightened times, people should worship a purported virus, and desert God.

THE BONDAGE OF LIES

by Dave Daubenmire

Jesus Christ has been criminalized in America. Most of you have probably never looked at it that way, but can you name one historical person who is less welcome in a public discussion than the King of Kings?

He has been expunged from education, government, healthcare, counseling, media, military, and every other area of public discourse. He has been banished to the church where He is occasionally offered the opportunity to appear. But those appearances are becoming rarer everyday as the Church gives way to feel good psychobabble masquerading as Truth.

Sadly, most pulpits no longer plead His case nor fight for His rightful position as King over all the earth. There was a day when our churches believed it and taught it. There was a time when He was the central focus of all that we taught. Jesus, and His precepts, was the center of public education, the government, medicine, and all the sciences. As the embodiment of Truth, Jesus Christ was the Chief Cornerstone of all our once-honest institutions.

No longer. America is suffering from Truth decay and in the place of Jesus we have substituted something called "science." Science has now become the arbiter and determiner of all Truth. Where American children were once taught to "trust Jesus" we are now being exhorted to "trust science."

What do we do when "science" lies to us? Where do we go for Truth when Truth no longer matters?

But Truth always matters. It is the foundation of all belief. Where do we turn when absolute Truth no longer exists? What do we do when "Truth" is determined by "scientists" who do research that validates the goals of those who sign their paychecks? What do we do when science becomes politicized and truth is sold to the highest bidder? What do we do when science no longer validates the Truth?

Can there be anything more diabolical and destructive than teaching our children things that are not true? Jesus told us that "you shall know the Truth and the Truth (if you know it) will make you free?" If Truth makes us free, do falsehoods place us in bondage? Could it be that America is in the mess we are in, because we no longer demand the TRUTH?

Truth does not matter to the secular Left. Truth is a person, and He is persona non grata in most of America's institutions. No wonder there is so little freedom in this nation. Truth is not something that the Secularists value. Truth is not an opinion.

Christians are forced to pay taxes to support "public" schools where the values they teach in their home are undermined. The schools teach "theories" as if they were true. Evolution, sexual orientation, selective gender, man-made climate change, reproductive choice, are all voodoo science based on theories. NONE of them represent Truth. Yet they are taught as Truth...under the historical lie of "the separation between the church and state."

Lies. All lies, taught to our children as Truth. No wonder millions of Americans walk around wearing dog muzzles in the name of science. Soon they will be lining up for a vaccination that "they" tell us will prevent us from getting the flu.

Who is "they" you might ask? Probably the same crowd of experts that tell us Bruce Jenner is a woman, unborn babies are a blob of tissue, gays are "born that way", and that their family progenitor was some ape in Africa. All unproven lies. Why are we surprised when children act like animals after we teach them that they came from apes?

Bought and paid for science is a poor substitute for Truth.

The next time you get upset about your business being forced to close, look no further than the nearest mirror. YOU are the one to blame. You kept your mouth shut. You permitted the lies to be taught. You failed to speak up and demand the Truth. That's right. YOU ...and me...our silence has birthed a rotten crop.

Now they want to tell us that Joe Biden was elected President. They convince you that all votes count...legal or not. They tell you the election was honest. They tell you no fraud took place. They tell you that you can trust the machines...the machines do not lie. The most secure election in history, they tell us. Your TV nooze "amens", and repeats the lies.

They tell you they are impartial. They block the Truth and ban you on social media. They tell you network projections determine election winners. They tell you that judges are impartial and honest. They tell you to believe what you are told, and not your own instincts.

Government officials used to hang for lying...now they get elected to higher office. Whose fault is that?

Lies rule the day in America. No one is held accountable. The ends justify the means. Truth has fallen in the streets and someone needs to help Him get up.

Western civilization is teetering. If we want to remain free, we must return to THE Truth. We must live it and demand it. That is the ONLY thing that will make us free.

The rise of Christian nationalism

Rachel Mikva
USA Today

only two world views!
christian or satanic!

When a violent mob broke into the Senate chamber on Jan. 6, said Rachel Mikva, one of the leaders cried out, "Jesus Christ, we invoke your name!" It was a vivid demonstration of the problem "Christian nationalism" poses to this country. An estimated 20 percent of American adults, most of them white, believe the U.S. should be an expressly Christian country, with biblical teachings guiding every aspect of civic life. Furious and frightened about losing culture-war battles over abortion rights, LGBTQ equality, and gender norms, Christian nationalists have declared a holy war, drawing apocalyptic language from the Book of Revelation about a cosmic battle between good and evil. At the Capitol riot, insurrectionists carried large wooden crosses, Bibles, and Jesus flags. Some organizers called the attack the "Jericho March," alluding to the Israelites' raid of the city of Jericho. Christian nationalists are also working within the system to install judges who will cite "religious freedom" to impose their worldview on the law. Sen. Josh Hawley (R-Mo.) has said his mission is to "transform our society to reflect the gospel truth and lordship of Jesus Christ." What if you don't agree? To Hawley and other Christian nationalists, then you're not a real American.

The Myth of Once Saved, Always Saved – Debunking False Doctrines

September 20, 2016 Ryan A. French

Few false doctrines are more dangerous than the Calvinistic assertion of “eternal security” or “once saved, always saved.” This belief has become pervasive far beyond theological academia’s reach. “Once saved, always saved” is a popular mantra for the average “low information” Christian. It crosses denominational lines, bleeds between theological spectrums, and slips into everyday dogmas.

The doctrine of eternal security essentially states that nothing can cause them to be disfellowshipped from God once a person is saved. Without going too deep, it should be noted that there are numerous variations and machinations of this doctrine. In its most extreme form, a person could theoretically be saved and murder his wife while remaining “unconditionally” saved. Others would assert that if someone were to commit such a heinous act, he was never “truly” saved in the first place.

Sadly, this dangerous doctrine flatly contradicts Scripture, and it is commonly used as a smokescreen to justify sinful lifestyles. In other words, “once saved, always saved” appeals to the most carnal leanings of our humanity. It gives false legitimacy for sin, false comfort to sinners, and builds a pseudo-biblical barrier between countless sinners and repentance.

The doctrine of eternal security flatly contradicts Scripture, and it is commonly used as a smokescreen to justify sinful lifestyles. In other words, “once saved, always saved” appeals to the most carnal leanings of our humanity.

The doctrine of eternal security gives false legitimacy for sin, false comfort to sinners, and builds a pseudo-biblical barrier between countless sinners and repentance.

It’s eerie how the Calvinistic notion of eternal security shares similarities with Satan’s seduction of Eve in the garden of Eden. The serpent assured Eve, “... Ye shall not surely die (Genesis 3:4).” The satanic implication being that Eve could live in disobedience without fear of Divine consequences. The doctrine of eternal security makes the same false claim, and it originates from the same satanic source. Here’s the primary passage of Scripture used to prop up the concept of once saved, always saved:

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? 36 As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter. 37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. 38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, 39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:35-39

The doctrine of eternal security shares similarities with Satan's seduction of Eve in the garden of Eden. Satan said, Ye, shall not surely die. The implication being that Eve could live in disobedience without fear of Divine consequences.

First of all, this is a tremendously encouraging passage of Scripture, but it's talking about God's unconditional love, not unconditional salvation. With close examination, you'll find that sin is not once mentioned in the context of this promise. As with other passages used to support O.S.A.S. (John 3:15, John 5:24, John 10:28, Romans 8:1, 1 Corinthians 10:13), the emphasis is always on external forces having no authority over your personal responsibilities towards God.

Let's put it this way; nothing can force you to separate yourself from God except you. Satan can't make you do it any more than he made Eve do it. Eve exercised her free will. Adam exercised his free will. And they both suffered the consequences of their actions. Sin separates us from a right relationship with God, but it does not remove us from the love of God. For example, "...*God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:8)." God loves us even while we are in sin, but to say the cross made sin acceptable is to undermine the cross's necessity in the first place completely. The phrasing "while we were yet sinners" shows Paul's assumption that believers would naturally understand sinful lifestyles must be discarded after salvation. Furthermore, the apostle Peter calls us to follow in the footsteps of Jesus, "Who did no sin (1 Peter 2:21-22)." A few verses down, he underscores that Jesus "bare our sins in His own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness... For ye were as sheep going astray, but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls (1 Peter 2:24-25)."

Nothing can force you to separate yourself from God except you. Satan can't make you do it any more than he made Eve do it. Eve exercised her free will. Adam exercised his free will. And they both suffered the consequences of their actions.

God loves us even while we are in sin, but to say the cross made sin acceptable is to undermine the cross's necessity in the first place completely.

But we still haven't sufficiently debunked the doctrine of eternal security. Few people would argue against the Scriptural emphasis on living above sin. Many would say that righteous living is the best way but not a requirement for Heaven after obedience to the Gospel. So let's take a look at several Scriptures that prove that it is possible to throw away our salvation and trample upon the grace of God.

The parable of the sower gives us insight into the issue at hand. Jesus speaks of individuals who receive the Gospel immediately with joy, but when affliction or persecution arises because of the Word, they fall away (Mark 4:16, Luke 8:13).

Consider these self-explanatory Scriptures from the book of Hebrews:

"For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame (Hebrews 6:4-6)."

"For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries (Hebrews 10:26-27)."

"Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition (destruction); but of them that believe to the saving of the soul (Hebrews 10:38-39)."

Additionally, Peter speaks plainly of people who return and are "overcome" by the "pollutions of the world," stating that it would be better if they had never known the "way of righteousness" in the first place (2 Peter 2:20-22). But the words of Jesus are the most potent, "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity (Matthew 7:21-23)."

We could go on and on demonstrating the Scriptural imperative that we must not depart from the faith post-salvation or risk Divine judgment. I'll leave you with a list of Scriptures proving saved individuals must continue to "work out... salvation with fear and trembling (Philippians 2:12)."

Children of God Can:

1. "Fall from grace" – Galatians 5:1-4,13
2. "Be led away with error" – 2 Peter 3:17
3. "Err from the truth" – James 5:19-20
4. "Weak brother may perish" – 1 Corinthians 8:11
5. "Fall into condemnation" – James 5:12
6. "Be moved away from the hope" – Colossians 1:21-23
7. "Deny the Lord who bought them" – 2 Peter 2:1

Educated Idiots! Hosea 4:6

Brainwashed guilt-ridden White girls take turns stomping the Christopher Columbus statue after it was ripped down in front of the Minnesota State Capitol in St. Paul, Minnesota in June 2020. Should we honor Columbus for his historic voyages or relegate him to the dustbin of history because he was a less-than-perfect colonial administrator? Placing today's values on men who lived centuries ago is absurd and counterproductive to honest evaluations of their lives.

BELIEVE—OR ELSE

“E very record has been destroyed or falsified, every book rewritten, every picture has been repainted, every statue and street building has been renamed, every date has been altered. And the process is continuing day by day and minute by minute. History has stopped. Nothing exists except an endless present in which the Party is always right.” So said George Orwell in his prescient book 1984. If you have been paying attention (and I am sure you have because you are a TBR subscriber), you know that the perception of reality is changing at break-neck speed here in the United States, just as Orwell predicted. Never before in our history have we been told that we must believe things that simply aren't true unless, of course, we are terribly awful people. The list of fictions they demand we accept as fact is far too long for the space reserved for this editorial, but here are just a few:

- A man can be a woman and a woman can be a man just by saying so.
- There is no such thing as “gender,” but people are demanding a female president and a certain portion of the work force be female. (Women are 52% of the work force.)
- Sexualizing pre-teen girls in movies in which they emulate the behavior of strippers is not a form of child sex-trafficking or child abuse.
- Mass raucous protests against “systemic racism” do not spread disease, but outdoor religious services do.
- Violent protesting is commendable behavior.
- Threatening to burn down someone's home, kill them, their family or their pets while protesting is perfectly fine, but standing out in front of your home with a legal firearm while you are being threatened is a prosecutable offense.
- Tearing down monuments dedicated to American culture heroes solves problems faced by minority populations.
- Those who peacefully protest coronavirus lockdowns are evil racists who should be arrested, but looters, rioters, rapists and murderers should get out of jail within 24 hours.
- Law-abiding citizens who own guns and have never committed crimes are more or equally as dangerous as criminal gang members who own guns illegally.
- Inner cities will be just like the suburbs simply by abolishing police departments. By extension, this means that police departments are responsible for poverty, crime, unemployment, drug abuse, gang shootings etc.
- Foreign “election meddling” is horrible, but illegal aliens voting in elections is just fine.
- Conservative political and moral views should be censored, but censoring XXX-rated pornography is a violation of freedom of speech.
- Allowing babies to die after they are born is not murder, and nothing more than a “woman's choice.”

● White people are hunting down Black people because they want to “genocide” them.

● Black, Hispanic and Asian people are not racist; only White people can possibly be racist.

● Offering jobs or college admission to people based on race and not performance is not racist.

● Criminal aliens from Central America who sneak across the border should be welcomed with open arms, given free health and legal care, but immigrants with strong job skills from European nations should be rigorously vetted.

● People who have never been to college because they could not afford it should pay for those who have gone to college but refuse to pay their educational debts.

● People whose families never owned slaves but who may have had ancestors perish in a war to free slaves should pay slave reparations.

● People whose ancestors never owned slaves but fought on the “wrong side” in the Civil War should also pay slave reparations.

● In a related vein, some people are responsible for the actions of ancestors who lived hundreds of years ago, but people breaking the law right now are not responsible for their own violent, criminal activity.

● Criticism of people from certain religions or ethnic groups is racist whether the criticisms are factually valid or not. (Think George Soros.)

● A photo ID is required to adopt a pet, buy alcohol or cigarettes, apply for food stamps, a job, a fishing license or social security, get a drivers license, buy a house or rent an apartment, get on a plane, purchase a gun, donate blood or even buy nail polish, but there is no need for a photo ID to vote in an election.

● Censorship of important historical and political stories by Big Tech and Big Media monopolies is perfectly acceptable if the message counters the leftist party line. By extension, people who disagree with mainstream neo-Bolshevik propaganda should not have free speech rights.

● It's okay for a vice president to blackmail a nation but it is an impeachable offense for a president to inquire about the circumstances surrounding that blackmail.

● Questioning the veracity of certain historical events as portrayed in mainstream history books should be illegal.

So . . . if you accept all the above as true, then you have a chance to be an exemplary citizen in the new U.S.A. But, if you disagree with any of the above, Heaven help you. It means you are probably sane and have no place in the radical left's “brave new world.” Possibly the only thing that can save you is time in a forced re-education camp.

I look forward to serving time with you.

What to Expect in 2021: Madness, Mayhem, Manipulation and More Tyranny

By John W. Whitehead
January 5, 2021

"Twelve voices were shouting in anger, and they were all alike. No question, now, what had happened to the faces of the pigs. The creatures outside looked from pig to man, and from man to pig, and from pig to man again; but already it was impossible to say which was which."—George Orwell, Animal Farm

What should we expect in 2021?

So far, it looks like this year is going to be plagued by more of the same brand of madness, mayhem, manipulation and tyranny that dominated 2020.

Frankly, I'm sick of it: the hypocrisy, the double standards, the delusional belief by Americans at every point along the political spectrum that politics and politicians are the answer to what ails the country, when for most of our nation's history, politics and politicians have been the cause of our woes.

Consider: for years now, Americans, with sheeplike placidity, have tolerated all manner of injustices and abuses meted out upon them by the government (police shootings of unarmed individuals, brutality, corruption, graft, outright theft, occupations and invasions of their homes by militarized police, roadside strip searches, profit-driven incarcerations, profit-driven wars, egregious surveillance, taxation without any real representation, a nanny state that dictates every aspect of their lives, lockdowns, overcriminalization, etc.) without ever saying "enough is enough."

Only now do Americans seem righteously indignant enough to mobilize and get active, and for what purpose? Politics. They're ready to go to the mat over which corporate puppet will get the honor to serve as the smiling face on the pig for the next four years.

Talk about delusion.

It's so ludicrous as to be Kafkaesque.

A perfect example of how farcical, topsy-turvy, and downright perverse life has become in the America: while President Trump doles out medals of commendation and presidential pardons to political cronies who have done little to nothing to advance the cause of freedom, Julian Assange rots in prison for daring to blow the whistle on the U.S. government's war crimes.

You'd think that Americans would be outraged over such abject pandering to the very swamp that Trump pledged to drain, but that's not what has the Right and the Left so worked up. No, they're still arguing over whether dead men voted in the last presidential election.

Either way, no matter which candidate lost to the other, it was always going to be the Deep State that won.

And so you have it: reduced to technicalities, distracted by magician's con games, and caught up in the manufactured, highly scripted contest over which beauty contestant wears the crown, we have failed to do anything about the world falling apart around us.

Literally.

Our economy—at least as it impacts the vast majority of Americans as opposed to the economic elite—is in a shambles. Our infrastructure is falling apart. Our government has been overtaken by power-hungry predators and parasites. And our ability—and fundamental right—to govern our own lives is being usurped by greedy government operatives who care nothing for our lives or our freedoms.

Our ship of state is being transformed into a ship of fools.

We stand utterly defenseless in the face of a technological revolution brought about by artificial intelligence and wall-to-wall surveillance that is re-orienting the world as we know it. Despite the mounting high-tech encroachments on our rights, we have been afforded a paltry amount of legislative and judicial protections. Indeed, Corporate America has more rights than we do.

We stand utterly powerless in the face of government bureaucrats and elected officials who dance to the tune of corporate overlords and do what they want, when they want, with whomever they want at taxpayer expense, with no thought or concern for the plight of those they are supposed to represent. To this power elite, “we the people” are good for only two things: our tax dollars and our votes. In other words, they just want our money.

We stand utterly helpless in the face of government violence that is meted out, both at home and abroad. Indeed, the systemic violence being perpetrated by agents of the government—inflicted on unarmed individuals by battlefield-trained SWAT teams, militarized police, and bureaucratic government agents trained to shoot first and ask questions later—has done more collective harm to the American people and their liberties than any single act of terror or mass shooting.

We stand utterly silenced in the face of government and corporate censors and a cancel culture that, in their quest to not offend certain viewpoints, are all too willing to eradicate views that do not conform. In this way, political correctness has given way to a more insidious form of group think and mob rule.

We stand utterly locked down in the face of COVID-19 mandates, restrictions, travel bans and penalties that are acclimating the populace to unquestioningly accede to the government’s dictates, whatever they might be (as long as they are issued in the name of national security), no matter how extreme or unreasonable.

We stand utterly intimidated in the face of red flag laws, terrorism watch lists, contact tracing programs, zero tolerance policies, and all other manner of police state tactics that aim to keep us fearful and compliant.

We stand utterly indoctrinated in the collective belief that the government—despite its longstanding pattern and practice of corruption, collusion, dysfunction, immorality and incompetence—somehow represents “we the people.”

Despite all of this, despite how evident it is that we are mere tools to be used and abused and manipulated for the power elite's own diabolical purposes, we somehow fail to see their machinations for what they truly are: thinly veiled attempts to overthrow our republic and enslave the citizenry in order to expand their power and wealth.

It is a grim outlook for a new year, but it is not completely hopeless.

If hope is to be found, it will be found with those of us who do not rely on politicians that promise to fix what is wrong but instead do their part, at their local levels, to right the wrongs and fix what is broken. I am referring to the builders, the thinkers, the helpers, the healers, the educators, the creators, the artists, the activists, the technicians, the food gatherers and distributors, and every other person who does their part to build up rather than destroy.

As I make clear in my book Battlefield America: The War on the American People, “we the people” are the hope for a better year. Not Trump. Not Biden. And not the architects and enablers of the American Police State.

Until we can own that truth, until we can forge our own path back to a world in which freedom means something again, we're going to be stuck in this wormhole of populist anger, petty politics and destruction that is pitting us one against the other.

In that scenario, no one wins.

There's a meme circulating on social media that goes like this:

If you catch 100 red fire ants as well as 100 large black ants, and put them in a jar, at first, nothing will happen. However, if you violently shake the jar and dump them back on the ground the ants will fight until they eventually kill each other. The thing is, the red ants think the black ants are the enemy and vice versa, when in reality, the real enemy is the person who shook the jar. This is exactly what's happening in society today. Liberal vs. Conservative. Black vs. White. Pro Mask vs. Anti Mask. The real question we need to be asking ourselves is who's shaking the jar ... and why?

Whether red ants will really fight black ants to the death is a question for the biologists, but it's an apt analogy of what's playing out before us on the political scene and a chilling lesson in social engineering. So before you get too caught up in the circus politics and conveniently timed spectacles that keep us distracted from focusing too closely on the government's power grabs, first ask yourself: who's really shaking the jar?

THE GRAND DESIGN EXPOSED

Outrage—bogus divine retribution! Staged world wide! Hang on—it's coming. And yet, most people living in our world today have not the vaguest idea that shattering changes are about to take place that will disrupt every individual on planet earth. This is a very rare book—but its message is explicitly clear. It lays bare a bold design for world domination. It's about an alliance of extraordinary men. Brilliant men working secretly behind unsuspected covers. Patient men passing on their envisioned goal from one generation to another. This book ferrets out history that begs to be left unknown.

These men represent the world's largest organization whose very name means global. They have an Occult agenda and an Occult timetable for launching their world chaos. Decipher their Occult symbols on the back of every American one dollar bill and within the city of Washington D.C. and you'll find the clue. This book uncovers it all.

However, the Sovereign God of the universe millenniums ago revealed to His people the two Occult powers that would unite for final world control. Then will “begin” the greatest sorrows ever visited upon our blood stained earth. But take heart my friend, and stand firm for God's sacred truth. For it also “signals” the imminent return of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ who will vanquish His enemies and vindicate those He loves.

This thought and hope brings joy to the hearts of those who are waiting and “love His appearing”, and will sustain them through the bitter days ahead. The solemn mission of this book is to remove the deceptive smokescreen and expose Satan's masterpiece on earth so that you may turn tragedy into triumph and rise to meet the Lord in the air when He returns.

These are books everyone should have!

Secret Door to Understand Bible Prophecy

By Stan Johnson

In 2017, Stan memorized the Book of Revelation. He received 30 revelations, two visions, and an audible voice. God showed him the word "Firstfruits" is a secret door linking the Feasts of Leviticus to the prophecies of Revelation.

When linked for the first time the end time prophecies of Revelation can be placed in correct chronological order.

The back flap of the Secret Door to Understand Bible Prophecy is two large charts putting the events of Revelation in proper order.

One prophetic word said, "There is a lock that I have put over a word in the Book of Revelation that I am going to open unto you. It will turn so many books written on the end time message into obsolete books." That is this book.

Tribulation Secrets in Daniel

by Stan Johnson

The Book of Daniel is the most difficult book in the Bible to understand. This book gives the last generation a simple explanation of the parts of Daniel which relate to the Tribulation. Pure and simple it makes Daniel easy to understand. Daniel exposes the plans of Antichrist. How to spot the Antichrist early and what to do, his physical appearance, the sound of his voice, and how he rises to power. The Beast will be a resurrected Nebuchadnezzar from the bottomless pit. It explains the seven final world governments.

God's Warnings to America

By Prophecy Club

In many of the broadcasts I refer to a list of dreams, visions and audible voices I believe are from God given to Dumitru Duduman, Michael Boldea, Leslie Johnson, Henry Gruver, Shane Warren, Terry Bennett, Maurice Sklar, Augusto Perez, Doug Metzger, Bree Keyton and more.

You can now have your own copy which will be priceless as we go into the Tribulation.

Miss the Mark: Don't Take The Mark Of The Beast!

What if you had to tell a person the most important thing in the world, but you knew they wouldn't believe you? What would you do?

The most important thing TO DO is receive Jesus. The most important thing NOT TO DO is take the Mark of the Beast!

Because those taking the Mark do not get soul-death but eternal torment in hell. Revelation 14:9-11, 20:10

After Jesus has returned and all of time has been concluded. Throughout all human history there are only three groups of people.

1. Those IN the Book of Life who live forever.
2. Those NOT in the Book of Life who are tossed into the lake of fire which is body and soul death. [OBA 1:16]
3. Those people who worship the Beast, his image, receive his Mark or the NUMBER of his NAME! They are tossed into the lake of fire Brimstone tormented day and night forever without soul-death.

If you take the Mark of the Beast you can cut your hand off, chisel it off your forehead, but you will not go to heaven.

How do you talk to people about the Mark of the Beast?

Give them Miss the Mark. If they read this they will NEVER take the Mark of the Beast!

It simply explains the Tribulation
